IT SEEMS LIKE every time you see a new movie, adorable B.J. Thomas is singing the title song. But now you're finally gonna get a gander at this guy's acting talents too—cos he's going to star in his first feature flick, Minsky-Kirshner's Jory, now being filmed in Mexico. This is going to be an action-filled story with lotsa emotions to get you totally involved! And as an extra-special treat, you're gonna get to see a new dynamite actor who's co-starring in Jory—Robby Benson. This doll has done loads of stage work, and this is his second flick. He's a groovy guy who you'll be seeing a lot of from now on. Jory should be released in the late spring—so get ready for B.J. and Robby!

Being released just about now is Columbia's Happy Birthday, Wanda June. This is a fun-filled comedy which will make you bubble with laughter. And watch this flick closely, cos there's a bright new talent here named Steven Paul. This doll has done many stage productions, including Oliver!, and now you can be sure the movie world will be keeping him around for a long, long time!... Another gorgeous guy who should be grabbed up by some movie-makers is David Holmes. He's a good-looker—and a talented actor, too!

A brand new flick which was just released is Warner's The Cowboys. This is a Wild West film, packed with all the action you could possibly imagine. But the best part is that there are eleven groovy guys starring in this flick—and one of them is your fav, Stephen Hudis. Don't miss this fantabulous flick—or the eleven dolls!... Keep an eye out for beautiful Brook Fuller, cos this guy is star material! It's about time this fella had a starring role in a feature flick!

Fourteen-year-old Scott Jacoby, who gained fame in the Broadway production of Golden Rainbow, is now going to be seen in several films. He can currently be seen in The Anderson Tapes and soon to be released Jamie. This is a chilling thriller about a guy who's jealous of his mother's second husband and takes drastic measures to make the situation worse. One of "Jamie's" more treacherous evil doings is burning down his house, which results in—murder! This is a must-see flick. Cutie Scott is now off in London, shooting a new flick—EMI/Group W's The Child Who Could Make Himself Disappear. The title sounds like this movie is gonna be a super follow-up for talented Scott Jacoby!

Another soon to be released flick is Columbia's Butterflies Are Free. This moving film stars handsome Edward Albert, son of talented telly star Eddie Albert. He portrays a blind guy who decides he's not going to let his disability stop him from living a normal life—and moves into his own apartment. He is faced with many obstacles, but manages to remain confident and strong. It's a flick not to be missed! And as a point of interest, darling David Cassidy was considered for this very same part, but what with his busy schedule (and fine competition from Edward Albert) he didn't take the part.

By now you've probably seen Universal's The Railway Children. Didja notice the youngest member of the "Bastable" family? That was a groovy new doll, Gary Warren. Gary plays "Peter," who is struggling with his family during a period of hard times after his father mysteriously disappears. It's a touching film for the whole family to see. Don't miss The Railway Children—or Gary Warren!

Have a close look at this month's Mystery Star, seen here when he was studying drama 'way back when. He's now working on a new film about a mystical magician. If you've been wondering what happened to superific Michael Blodgett, wonder no more! He just signed with MGM to star in their latest flick, A Case Of Need. Michael is currently working in Boston to complete this film, and then he's sure to be grabbed by another movie-maker to do a follow-up. Sure will be great seeing this doll again!

See ya in Movieland, 16-ers!
