

MAKES ME SICK

I am "sorry" to say I am not a Bobby Sherman fan, but here in Seattle there are probably Sherman-maniacs who are going wild for this reason: "Here Come the Brides" and "Getting Together" are seen here right in a row. Personally, it's enough to make me sick.

BRAND NEW FAVE

I saw Butch Patrick on "Lidsville" and I think he's super terrific! I hope FaVE has stories on him because he may become another top star. Everyone who hasn't seen him should, and I'm sure you'll agree with me!

ANOTHER OPINION

This letter is directed to Mary Ann Farmer who said in the Dec. issue that she thought David, Bobby, the Osmonds and Jackson Five shouldn't dress up so much for their concerts. She's totally wrong! I happen to be a Jackson Five fan, and when my friend and I went to see them, we were also looking forward to seeing their outfits! The colors and far-out styles made their concert twice as good as it already was! Anyone can listen to their music 24 hours a day if they have the records, but seeing them in person is a rare thing, so you want to see them look good!

JUST TOO FANCY

I agree with Mary Ann Farmer about David, Bobby, the Osmonds and J-5 dressing too fancy. If they like girls to dress casually, it's understandable that some girls may like for them to dress casually too. I think they should dress up somewhat for performances, but not make it overdone. I hope they realize it someday too.

CLOTHING IS SPECIAL

Lots of girls think David Cassidy should wear jeans at his concerts, but I disagree. Concerts are special. They just don't happen to everyone. You have to be loved, talented, admired and famous. You wouldn't go to a real fancy restaurant with a boy wearing jeans, nor would you get married in jeans or everyday clothes. Well, concerts are special occasions too, so the clothing should be different!

LATEST PREDICTION

I just read a letter in one of your older magazines where a girl wrote that by 1981 she thought Jimmy Osmond would be the greatest idol ever. I disagree completely. I predict that by the year 1981, the "greatest idol ever" will be RANDY JACKSON!

BEAUTIFUL FRIDAYS!

I used to hate it when Friday came because it meant another boring weekend. But now I can't wait for Fridays for three reasons: At 6:30 on ABC comes the beautiful "Nanny and the Professor," at 7:00 is the "Brady Bunch" with more laughs, and at 7:30 comes the swingiest family of all—the Partridges! I think you can see why I love Friday nights now! Keep it up, guys!

HAUNTED HOUSE

Our house is haunted by a ghost that likes the Osmond Brothers! I can feel its presence when I'm playing their records, and it seems to get mad if I turn them off! The ghost also turns on my radio when one of their records is being played, and it's also been known to change stations just to hear the music. These facts are true—my girlfriends are witnesses!

BOBBY'S THE BEST

I think Bobby Sherman is the greatest. I go to bed every night hoping that I'll dream about him. Lately I've been wondering if Bobby dates girls who are the same size as he? I'm also 5'9", but I weigh 35 pounds less! Anyway, I hope he does! He's the greatest!
