

David returned to the set after changing for the next scene, and he stopped to try to give Susan and Jane a hand with their puzzle.

After a few minutes, David gave up!

"I can't do those things, and it gets frustrating!" David laughed. "Last week, Jane was doing one on "Find the Colors" instead of authors, and she found one word after another... and I just sat there... trying and trying to find at least one word, but..." David threw his arms up in the air, and hurried to the set.

A NEW FAN CLUB!

I received many letters asking about the new 1972 Fan Club. Here are a few comments from last year's Fan Club members who have already joined up for '72!

"I was a member last year, and I loved everything, but I'll have to admit... this year is even better! The picture of David is my favorite, and I've already hung it up!"

"This year's Fan Club is better than ever. I've told all my friends about it, and they said that they're joining too, after seeing all my Partridge stuff."

"I think even more people will join this year... the Partridges are groovier than ever, so it makes sense that the Fan Club would be too... I really love David."

Well! Are you convinced? Just send in the coupon on page 18 and $2.00, and you're all set for another Partridge Year!

PARTRIDGE MAILBOX

Dear Cecelia:

Sometimes people write nasty things about people in show business. Does that really hurt their feelings, or do they just figure that everybody can't like them?

Good feelings,
June Peppar

Dear June:

I guess everybody wants to be loved, so the Partridge Family folks are no exception. It DOES hurt them sometimes when people are unkind. Luckily, most people are nice.

Dear Cecelia:

Is it hard for somebody to take over a part in a series the way Brian Forster did for Jeremy Gelbwaks? Is he feeling right at home yet?

Love,
Linda Delbert

Dear Linda:

It IS kind of difficult at first to fit in to a part that somebody else performed for a whole season. But Brian is a real pro, and he took over beautifully. The Partridge Family set is such a friendly place, that everybody feels at home in just a short time.
