

What It's Like To Be A Star Dept.: Mary T. Moore got flu, show halted.

Flip Wilson will only talk about one woman in his life: Geraldine!

Did you know Jimmy Stewart was a cheerleader at Princeton?

TELEVISIONARY

DICK CAVETT BUGGED; SERIES FOR SANDRA DEE?

Are you ready for SANDRA DEE as a mature housewife? The former Tammy and Gidget is reportedly considering a television series for next fall in which she would play either (a) "a mature divorcee with children" or (b) "a single girl on her own." Choose one. . . . Move over, DAVID CASSIDY. PETE DUEL (he's "Hannibal Heyes" on Alias Smith and Jones) has taken up folk-singing and will make his singing debut on the show. . . . VINCE EDWARDS (you remember him, he used to be Ben Casey) has a word (or two or three) on the success of another teevee doctor. "Marcus Welby is different from Casey. It's a good show. But it has no competition. I'm not discounting it. ROBERT YOUNG is a fine actor. But it's slow." Apparently VINCE is slow to latch onto the fact that the Matt Lincoln show he did last year was so slow it died. . . . What's bugging DICK CAVETT aside from his low ratings? His voice. "I have a feeling," says DICK, "that about 90% of my life has been shaped by my voice, both as an embarrassment and as an advantage. There was always the terrible incongruity of this deep voice barreling out of this little body." So what does it all mean? We'll tell you, when you tell us what "incongruity" means. . . . BING CROSBY'S wife, KATHY, is about to give Universal the yes-or-no on a series which would star her as a lady district attorney. . . . ELIZABETH MONTGOMERY'S hubby on Bewitched, DICK SARGENT, has a problem—gambling. "The best way I've found to keep from being an excessive gambler," DICK reports, "is to laugh at myself when I'm dumb enough to lose, and to even expose myself to ridicule for it." DICK has been looking mighty ridiculous these days. . . . Hawaii Five-O's top cop, JACK LORD, has a unique hobby—he's a flower freak! JACK and his wife MARIE get up on weekends at 5 a.m. to go around Hawaii photographing flowers. According to JACK, "It has to be fast. The colors are fleeting. The light is ephemeral. . . . what a joy!" A little bird has told us JACK'S other grand passion is hairspray. He uses almost a ton of it on his bee-yoo-tee-ful locks for every show. . . . ROWAN and MARTIN are upset. Upset because producer PAUL KEYES asked CARY GRANT to be on their show and the exchange went something like this: KEYES: "Do you know Laugh-In?" GRANT: "Yes." KEYES: "Do you watch it?" GRANT: "Yes." KEYES: "Do you like it?" GRANT: "Yes." KEYES: "Will you be on it?" GRANT: "No!" And that, as they say, was that. . . . LINDA CRISTAL has a gardening tip now that she isn't riding around the High Chapparral set anymore: "I