

WHY SUSAN
DEY SAYS:
“I’D RATHER BE AN OLD MAID THAN MARRY DAVID CASSIDY!”

Every week thousands of girls are thrilled as they watch David Cassidy's handsome young face light up their TV screen. Every one of them would swoon at the idea of hearing and seeing David every day, in person. But there is one girl who does have that opportunity. She sees David every single working day.

Sweet-faced Susan Dey who plays Laurie, David's sister on The Partridge Family, is probably the recipient of more jealousy than any young girl her age. All over the country, girls wish they could be in her place.

I asked Susan what was most on my mind and what is probably most on yours:

“What are your feelings about David, Susan? Do the two of you get on? Is he fun to be with at the studio?”

Susan's answer was imme-
