

The secret beauty of loving David is sharing private chats on the telephone, whispered words meant for you alone. When David loves you, he will take time out of his busy schedule whenever he can to phone you his love message!

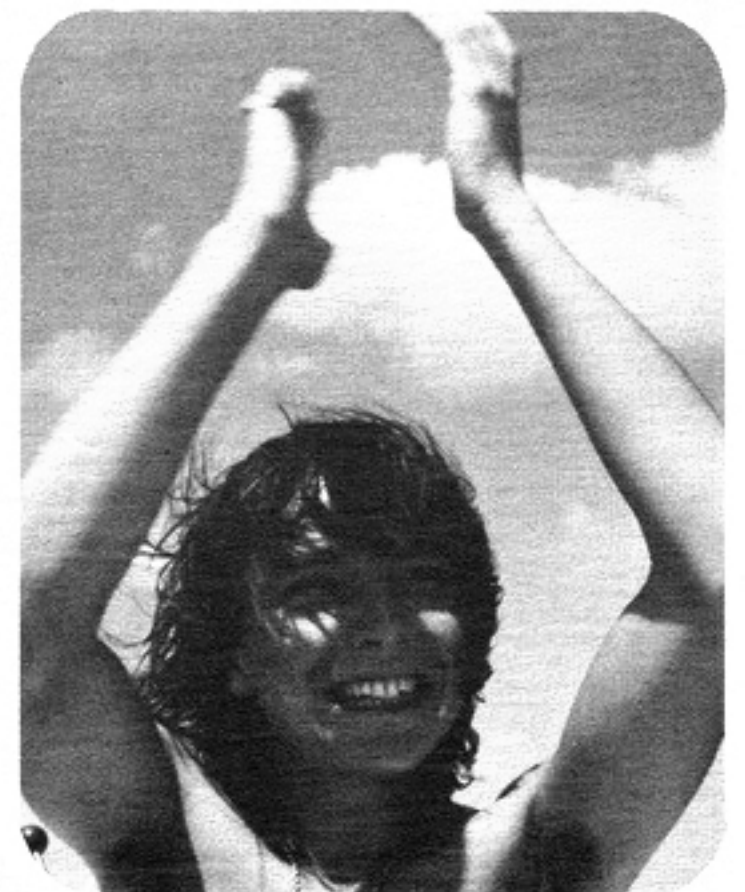

Sometimes you look at David when he doesn't know it. During such beautiful moments, you notice little things you've never noticed before. The funny way he twitches his nose, the crooked line near his mouth!

Your eyes are a mirror of your soul! David's beautiful eyes say things about his soul...the goodness of his heart...his honesty...his love! When David looks at you with his soft, soulful eyes, you hear the message from his heart. His spoken words say more to you than anything you've ever heard before! The wonderful mysteries of David's soul are for you to understand, as David speaks in beautiful silence.

David expresses himself with his beautiful body on stage. When David sings, his body sings too, in its own way, gracefully moving to the music, or really rocking out to a heavy sound! Either way, David's body is a groove! David's dynamic body movements at his concerts are an outasight happening that make it hard for the audience to stay in their chairs. Everyone wants to jump to their feet and move with David!

The beautiful outdoors can be even more so when you're with David! David loves to feel the wind tossing his hair, and the cold air stinging his cheeks!

continued on next page