

When Dynamic David Cassidy sings in person, it thrills your heart instantly, so excitingly, in a way you can never forget! But the live sound of his voice is gone from you forever when the concert is over.

But an album by David performs the miracle of keeping him with you always! David knows how important it is that his recorded keepsake to you be as perfect as he can make it. That's why David is thinking of you as...

DAVID RECORDS HIS FIRST LP! ★

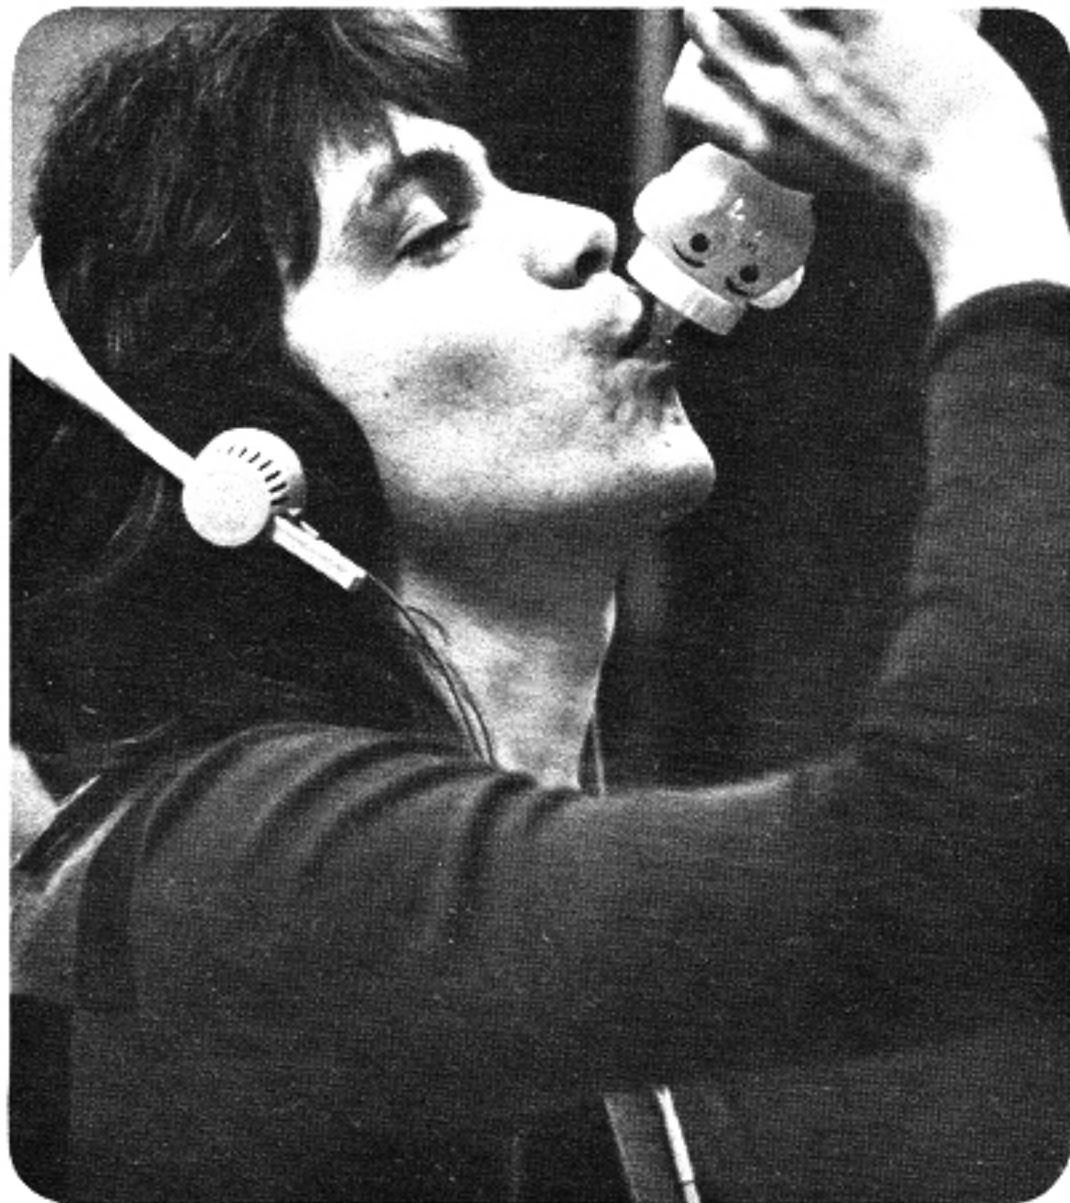

David asks to hear his last song one more time. Something bothers him and he wants to sing it exactly right!

David and his producer Wes Farrell rap about one of the new songs David's recording!!

David has a good idea for a piano part. As David explains it, Wes plays! David and Wes agree on music almost always! That's why David loves it when Wes helps him record!

Like most singers, David drinks honey for his voice. This makes singing easier on his throat. Not that David's voice really needs any help! Maybe it makes him sing sweeter!

Besides singing and playing the guitar, David loves to play the drums! When the session is over, David "sits in". Wouldn't you love to be there beside him? Then stick with STAR Mag!
