30 Faves Ask: WHO AM I?

Everyone has a favorite historical figure and we've asked 30 of your faves who their favorite is. They've described the achievement of that famous person and now it's up to you to guess who they are. Write your answers down on a piece of paper, then check the correct answers on page 63. Have fun!

DAVID CASSIDY

"People often remember me when they're ready to tell a lie because they're familiar with that story about me cutting down a cherry tree! But hopefully, I'm remembered for more than just that because I happened to be the first President of the United States! Guess who I am!"

DONNY OSMOND

"Believe it or not, my name happens to be Greek for the Hebrew name Joshua. In Christian teaching it is learned that I was born of Mary, wife of Joseph, a carpenter of Nazareth, who had brought his wife to Bethlehem for the Roman tax-census. I hope you can guess who I am!"

BOBBY SHERMAN

"I guess I did a lot for people because without my invention it's possible you wouldn't be reading this magazine! I created the electric light bulb . . . and look how much it's changed! Lights are now psychedelic and even trippy to watch, and that's what I call progress!"
