"LITTLE THE KID" rides again! Danny Bonaduce had a rough job carved out for him when he had to stay completely clean and white for a whole week while he filmed his part in the western spoof that was the Partridge Family's Christmas show. Maybe that's the reason why he's frowning! Do you think so?

IF THERE'S ONE THING Michael Jackson loves, it's riding his mini-bike! He doesn't mind that his older brothers have bigger, full-sized motorbikes, because he's too busy having a ball on his mini-bike. One rule they always follow — they always wear their helmets. "It's dumb not to," says Michael. "It's a terrific sport, but it's more fun if you're careful! We don't take any chances."

ONE OF THE HIGHLIGHTS of the Osmonds' in-person performances is Jay's solo on the drums! At their recent Forum appearance all had colds, but the Osmonds have never missed one show!

SHIRLEY JONES AND David attended the "Golden Apple Awards" together recently to accept their awards. David made a hilarious thank you speech that had everyone in stitches. But all was not funny—David had to be accompanied by an armed policeman, because only nights before he had run into some trouble as he came out of the recording studio.
