

MAKE UP MAGIC!

by Mel Berns, Jr., Partridge Make-Up Artist PART III

Mel Berns, Jr., the Partridge Make-up artist, has told you about the make-up problems of the stars. Now he wants to talk about YOU! Learn a professional's tricks on make-up and come out looking like a star!

I've told you all about the make-up problems we have on the Partridge set and how we fix them. For instance, Shirley's shiny complexion has to be toned down for the cameras just as Dave Madden's ruddy complexion needs a mellow yellow underbase to keep him from looking as red as a rose on the screen.

David's oily complexion needs patting throughout the day with astringent tissues to keep him looking fresh and dry. Susan's problem couldn't really be called a problem since her skin is so perfect on and off camera. All she needs is an extra dab of mascara and she's perfect! And the young Partridges are very "in" because they go completely natural!

Since you know all about the stars, how about our taking a close look at YOU now?

I've already explained the importance of a clean and healthy complexion. A good scrubbing with soap and water starts any make-up off to a good beginning!

The next step is choosing what make-up to use. The colors are fairly easy if you remember what I told you about one color killing another. For example, yellow

"EVERY GIRL CAN BE BEAUTIFUL" says Partridge Make-up artist Mel Berns, Jr., as long as she knows the best way to apply her make-up. That means looking as natural as possible, just the way the Partridge girls do!
