

Let's Tour With David

BY KIM AND DAVE

All set for another exciting concert tour with David? That's great because now you can come along each month as David's back-up singers, Kim and Dave let you in on all the fun!

Well, we just got back in to Los Angeles and we're also too tired to walk, but we've just got to tell you all about it! Honestly, every single tour gets to be more fun than the one before!

The only thing we worry about at all is David—he pushes himself so hard! We've both been talking for a week or more about practically nothing except how hard David works!

Think about it. All week long he does his television show, from five in the morning until seven at night. When he goes home, he's barely got time to grab a quick dinner, and then he has to learn all his lines for the next day!

Two or three times a week he's got photo sessions, and he's always trying to squeeze in some time to get into the recording studio—and then, on weekends, he goes out on tour! Sleeping on busses, grabbing naps on airplanes—it's a miracle he can keep it up!

BIGGEST MIRACLE

But we know the reason he can keep it up! And it is a miracle—the biggest miracle of all! It's love! He loves you so much that he'd work himself into exhaustion for you if he thought he could please you!

Sometimes we'll come offstage after a big show, and he'll be standing there in the dark, leaning against the wall, wet with perspiration and really tired, but he'll stand there, listening to all the cheering from the other side of the curtain. Then he'll look up, and the love and pleasure in his face actually makes him seem to glow!

We both hope someday some photographer will snap a picture of him at that moment! We'd hang it on our wall—neither of us has ever seen a performer with an expression like that, even though we're been entertaining for a few years!

But at the same time, he worries about his fans, and that wears him down, too. All the time he's onstage, while he's singing and dancing around, he's watching the audience, waiting for the thing he fears most—a rush toward the stage!

He's not afraid for himself, but he worries about his fans! In Greenville, South Carolina, a whole bunch of kids rushed the
