FOR SUSAN:

Dear Susan:

Do you think it's important whether or not a girl wears dresses? I'm more comfortable in pants but my parents tell me I'm a girl and should dress like one! I say it's not important—what do you say?

Terri
Ft. Belvoir, Va.

Dear Terri,

It's a little more difficult, I think, for our parents to understand that clothing isn't ruled so strictly between guys and girls today. For them, girls wore dresses and guys wore pants. Now, with equality growing so strongly in all areas—including the dress code—it isn't important what you wear as long as you're clean and comfortable. That's how I feel and I'm flattered that you wanted my opinion. I tend to favor comfortable slacks myself but I admit there are times when I like dressing up in a long dress!

Dear Susan:

I read somewhere that you're a Sagittarian. Did you know that Sagittarians are supposed to make the best entertainers? Do you follow astrology?

Star-gazer
Des Moines, Iowa

Dear Star-gazer,

Did you know that one of the first facts printed about anybody in Hollywood is their astrological sign? It's absolutely uncanny how some of the predictions can be accurate, but I have to admit to being a little suspicious when it comes to astrology! I don't like to think of astrology as a guideline for life. You have to make decisions by yourself—not from words printed by someone who doesn't know you at all!

FOR DAVID:

Dear David,

Will you ever do a TV special?
Julie Spring
Little Rock, Ark.
