

MAKE UP MAGIC!

need a pair of false eyelashes! Put one coat on to the very tips—let it dry completely then add another coat. Add as much as you want, but remember to let each coat dry completely before the next one.

Finished! The skin is soft and healthy with an even coating of make-up base. The colors are matched to suit the person—shadow, lipstick. The eyes are more expressive and are the center of interest.

The finishing touch can either be powder or blusher. If you prefer pressed powder, pat it on—never stroke or rub it in! It leaves traces.

But you know what the real finishing touch is? To look at yourself in the mirror afterwards and still be able to recognize who you are and what you looked like before!

Make-up isn't meant to be a mask. It's designed to compliment your features. So the finishing touch is not to go overboard with the application. Even the stars realize that underneath the make-up is a living, breathing human being.

If you wear your make-up well and naturally—you may end up by being the star of your school, classes, and parties!
