

It's popcorn and crackerjack time on the boardwalk at Asbury Park, New Jersey—while four- and-a-half-year-old David and his maternal grand-dad pose prettily.

Would you believe it?! It's five-year-old David, complete with a French beret and an American baseball and bat! That's his cousin Barbara, holding the balloon.

Boo-hoo—here's David with the mumps at age six. His mom tried to cheer him up with a sombrero and a photo session, but it didn't work.

Again at six, David and Barbara show off their Easter finery. It was David's first pair of long pants—and dig those crazy earmuffs!!

S'all for now, David Cassidy lovers! Meet David and his own Personal Photo Album again in the June issue of 16—on sale April 20!!
