normal. I hope I don't act that way when I get married," Suzanne giggled.

DAVID IN EUROPE

I haven't heard much from David, except that he's still in Europe, traveling in a camper! I remember how excited he was just before his trip! He had so many plans on where he was going to go, and what he was going to see! Everyone hopes that Europe is as great a thrill as he hoped! But I guess we'll have to wait and find out!

DAVE AND DANNY IN CHARLOTTE'S WEB

Danny and Dave worked together even after the show closed for the season! Danny, Dave, Debbie Reynolds, Tony Randall, and Pamela Ferdan (you may remember her from "The John Forsythe Show," and "The Odd Couple") were all cast to do the voice-overs for Hanna-Barbera's production of "Charlotte's Web."

Danny said, "It was great working with Dave, and Tony Randall was really a funny guy! Debbie played the voice of Charlotte, and at the end, when Charlotte dies, she was really sad!"

At one time, when Debbie Reynolds was casting people for her own show, she almost cast Danny as her son. The only problem was his hair (if you can imagine that being a problem!). The producers decided that they needed a blond instead of a flaming redhead!

As soon as Charlotte's Web was completed, Dave Madden took off for Florida, to visit his aunt for a few weeks.

"I need the rest," Dave explained. But if I know Dave, he'll be busy writing comedy routines or taking pictures the whole time.

Dave Madden isn't the only one going East for a visit! Susan Dey spent two weeks with her family in New York.

"I wanted to stay longer, but I have a part in a movie, and I had to come back! I'm really excited though! This is my first movie role, and I want it to be good. Charlton Heston is the star, and he's fantastic! It's really an honor working with him!"

Shirley confided that she was very jealous that Susan got to go East.

"I've been busy out here, but I want to go back to New York very soon. I love it there. If I go, I'll probably do a few shows, and then come back!"
