THE GRASS ROOTS

year... Joyce Menges, formerly of "To Rome With Love," was married on March 26th... For an unusual effect, T. Rex vocalist Marc Bolan likes wearing sequined tears glued to his cheeks during the group's performances... Richard Thomas is a Chinese philosophy major at Columbia University... Flash Cadillac & the Continental Kids brought back an old-fashioned "sock hop" to the dance halls of Waldorf, Maryland. Interestingly enough, the crowd was enthusiastic, and a '53 Caddy was awarded to the "greasiest" couple on the floor!... "Arnie's" Sue Ane Langdon has had so many requests for her delicious gourmet recipes, she's printed an exclusive set of mini-cookbooks to give to her friends... Ringo Starr likes spending most of his free time sculpting... The "All Right Now" guys, Free, are reuniting for a farewell concert tour at which time they'll also record a live LP... Warren Entner of the Grass Roots has purchased an antique kitchen scale and English dining room set for his home... $950 worth of traveler's checks, identification and lots of camera equipment was stolen from David Cassidy's rented van on his recent trip to Europe... A press party was held in Los Angeles for the Who, where the group was presented 26 gold records. Guests on hand included Cass Elliot, Richie Havens, and Mick & Bianca Jagger... Jethro Tull has postponed their "greatest hits" LP in order to release their "Thick as a Brick" album this month... Be on the lookout for a new group called Eddie Haddad & Canyon—'cause once you hear them, you won't forget 'em!... John & Yoko Lennon have asked Phil Spector to produce their new act called "The John & Yoko Mobile Political Plastic Ono Band Fun Show" ... Sales on Carole King's "Tapestry" album continue to rise—the total's already over three million!... Leon Russell is resting between concerts at his Oklahoma motel... Mike Clifford will be composing a good portion of songs on his next LP... The Beach Boys have arranged for voter registration booths to be set up at their concerts to encourage voting among young people... Marie Osmond may soon begin recording... In honor of one of their hottest groups, Capitol Records is releasing all of Grand Funk's discs on the group's own label. Incidentally, if you haven't already seen the group's latest album cover, it's round and covered with silver foil to represent a coin, and carries the words "E Pluribus Funk"... Mitch Vogel has purchased a new 12-string guitar and a pool table to enjoy in his leisure hours... Jon Provost may spend the summer in Europe working on a film... Karen Valentine has won several awards for her motorcycling... Susan Dey will make her film debut with James Brolin in "Airborne," a flick about airplane hijacking... Jan & Dean are back, after a long, long absence, with a brand new record called "Vegetables"... RCA has released the first single by Rockflowers, the group who sings commercials for Mattel toys... Keep your eyes open for Mu, the new rock group who claims their name stems from the long lost continent of Lemuria... Brian Forster was the guest judge at a recent cat show in the Valley... It looks as though Suzanne Crough will be modeling the Kate Greenaway line of "Partridge" clothes in stores throughout the States... It's that time of year again—happy birthday to the following! Jackie Jackson & Rick Ely, May 4; Sam Hyman, May 24; Karen Valentine, May 25, and Brandon Cruz, May 28.
