

Wow! Was I ever excited when STAR Mag asked ME to interview David Cassidy in London! I'm a magazine writer living in London, and since The Partridge Family has been on TV here, I've been watching Keith Partridge mania sweep over England! I wasn't sure just how big it had grown till I drove out to London's main airport, Heathrow, to meet David off the 6:40 p.m. flight from Rome...

DAVID

in LONDON

and EUROPE!

THE EXCITEMENT AT THE AIRPORT!

When I walked into the airline terminal, I found more than a thousand excited girls all waiting for David! I wondered if David, out there about to touch down in the plane, knew about the reception that was waiting for him!

The crowd of girls seemed to get bigger by the minute, and the atmosphere became more and more exciting! I noticed news photographers everywhere, and dozens of security guards were trying to calm the girls down. Many fans had started calling David's name! Imagine, I thought to myself, what the rest of David's six-day trip to London was going to be like! He hadn't even arrived yet, and already his fans were everywhere!

At exactly 6:45 p.m., I saw a handsome, long-haired figure,
