COULD YOU SAY NO TO DAVID?

"My Dream Date!"

★★★ DAVID: "My idea of a perfect date is the two of us alone at my house for a barbeque and a swim. I'll pick you up and we'll go to the market together to pick out food for our supper. We'll get so carried away, we'll buy much more than we can possibly eat!

"When we get back to my house, we'll change into our bathing suits and go for a swim in my pool before we start dinner. The water will feel so warm and relaxing that we'll forget about everything else but enjoying each other!

"We'll dry each other off with big, fluffy towels, and hurry back and forth from the kitchen to the patio with food for the glowing grill. Our steaks will be ready in no time at all. Dinner will taste great, 'cause we worked up a real big appetite swimming.

"After dinner, we'll lie back and relax in a lounge chair near the pool, still in our bathing suits. Looking deep into your eyes, I'll stroke your soft neck and beautiful shoulders. I'll take you in my arms, and kiss you with all my heart! Then..."

IF DAVID ASKED YOU TO SHARE HIS BARBEQUE DREAM DATE, COULD YOU SAY NO?

COULD YOU SAY NO TO DONNY?

"My Dream Date!"

DONNY: "Sometimes at night I think about a very special camping trip in the mountains with the girl I'll meet someday. My family and I go camping whenever we get the chance, and I always have a great time. But if my girl was with me too, it would really be beautiful, and we could share so many wonderful moments!

"In the mornings we'd all have a big outdoor breakfast! It would taste better than any breakfast we've ever had because we're together! Then we'd have the whole day to ourselves to look for mysterious secret trails and caves in the woods!

"We'll start our hike just as the sun is coming up. We want to find a quiet place high on a hillside to watch the sunrise, just the two of us. We'll sit and talk, tossing stones down into the stream below.

"It will be so peaceful and quiet, we'll feel like there's no one in the whole world but us. We'll find a blanket of pine needles on the ground, and lie back and look up at the sun's rays dancing through the tree tops
