

DIDN'T KNOW PARTRIDGES!

DAVE:

Most people expect bachelors to be a breed of human beings who exist on water, broiled steaks, and hamburgers (from the nearest hamburger joint!).

Surprise, surprise! Dave Madden is a bachelor and he's an excellent cook. In fact, his specialty is barbecue cook-outs. The entire Partridge cast testifies that Dave's barbecued spare ribs are scrumptious and out of this world! Dave's got his own secret touches for having his spare ribs turn out so great—and he's not ever going to reveal his barbecue techniques.

If you're ever invited to one of his barbecues, by all means GO! You'll be in for a tasty treat from one of the best cooks—even if he is a bachelor!

SUSAN:

People believe that because Susan is a successful and beautiful young actress in Hollywood that she lives in a fantastic mansion, drives a glistening Rolls Royce, and has a million servants around to do her errands.

That is NOT the way Susan Dey lives. She lives in a charming house that she loves. She drives a spiffy little Toyota. And she does all of her own errands—and most surprising of all she loves to do her own housework!

Can you imagine Susan Dey on her hands and knees scrubbing her kitchen floor? Well try it because she does scrub her own floors and she takes great pride in it. Susan says, "I think I can get a floor to shine better than anyone else I know!"

Susan doesn't think of herself as a "Star!" Instead, she loves to cook, read, take quiet walks, and scrub floors when they need her expert polishing!
