

You Are There!

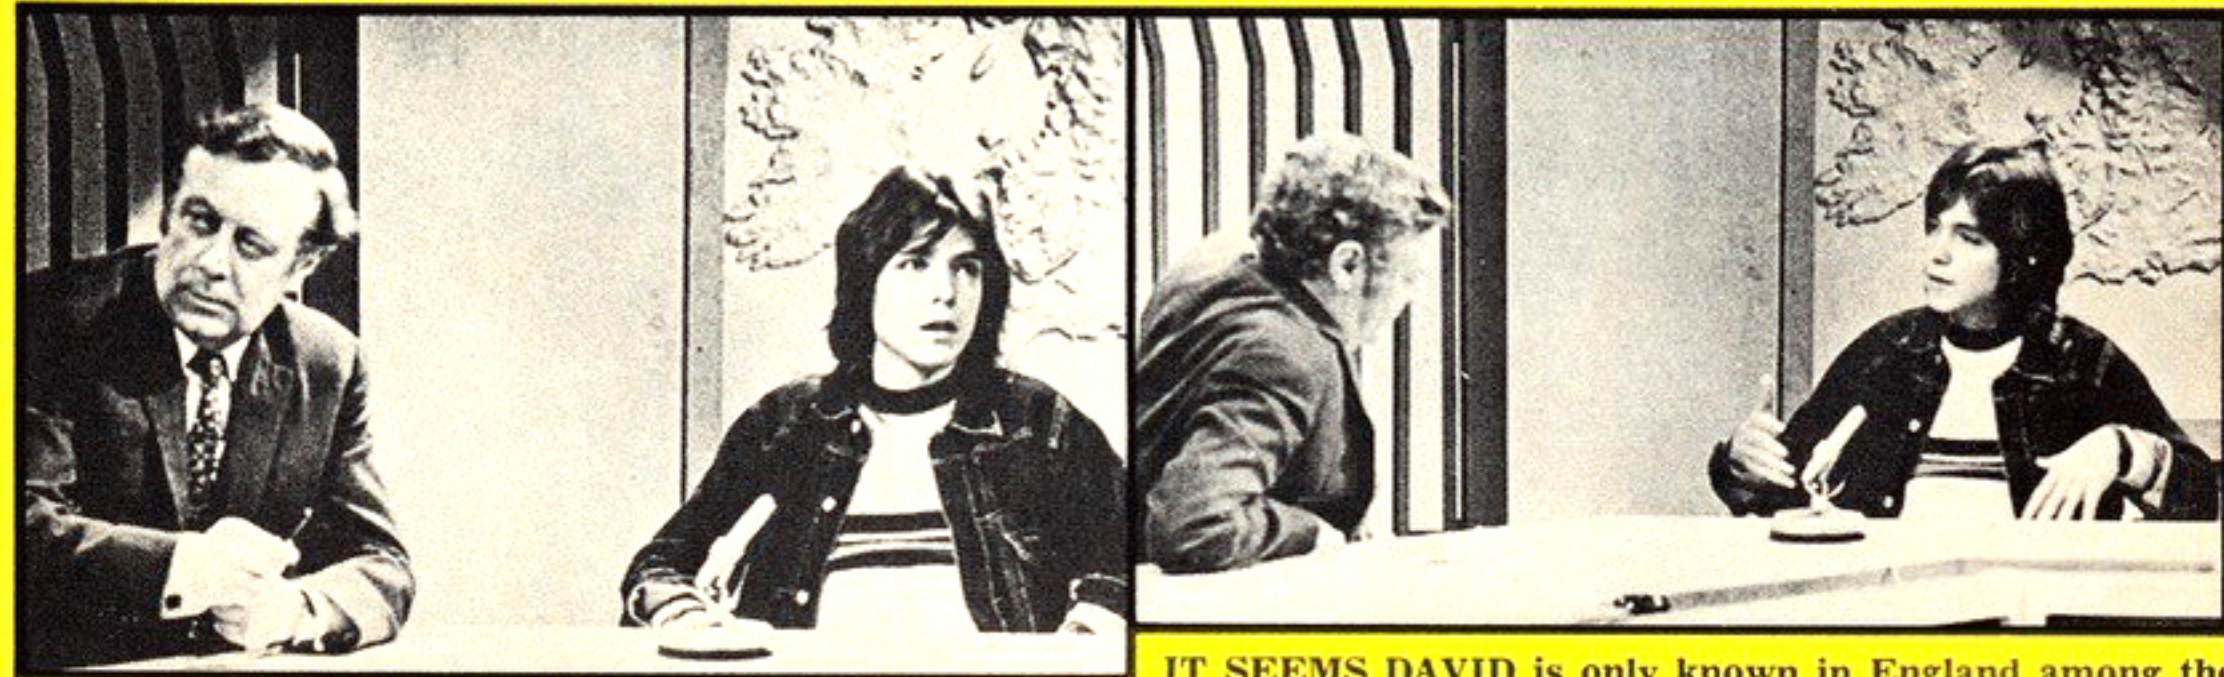

David wound up his European trip with a stop in jolly ol' England. Now you can join in the fun in London!

IT RAINED EVERY DAY during David's stay in England, but that didn't stop him from seeing as many sights as possible around London-town. He visited the usual sights — Buckingham Palace, Trafalgar Square, etc.

WHILE IN LONDON, David got back into the swing of making TV appearances and doing interviews. For the rest of his vacation he wasn't recognized once in Italy!

DAVID DID A SHORT INTERVIEW on the television program "Nationwide" interviewed by host Michael Barratt. The announcer admitted he didn't know who David was!

IT SEEMS DAVID is only known in England among the teenagers who have seen "The Partridge Family," which has only aired a few times in England. There are many fans!

CONTINUED ON PAGE 63