

DAVID

PART

ANSWERS YOU!

Wow! Since we asked you to send in questions for David to answer, they've been pouring in day and night! You should see the look our postman gives us as he staggers in, bent double underneath about nine sacks of postcards!

Naturally, we can't ask David to answer all of them this time around, but we'll get to them all sooner or later! If you don't see yours this time — keep watching, okay?

Now, here's David!

Okay, here I am again, with a gigantic stack of post cards in front of me, cards that come from all over the world! I never knew I had so many friends in so many different and far-out places! Sam says that if I ever decide to skyjack a plane and parachute to safety, I'm sure to land on a friend! I'm not sure I'm into it, but I'll keep it in mind!

Here come the questions!

DID YOU CRY WHEN SAM DIED?

Mary Humphrey Glendale, Ariz.

Yes, I did.

DO YOU EVER GET HOARSE FROM DOING A LOT OF TAKES ON A SONG?

Jennifer Aiken
Detroit, Mich.

I got really hoarse when I was making the Christmas album, because I'd just come back from a tour. That was when I discovered tea with lemon and honey, and now it's become about my favorite drink! Actually, I kind of like the way I sound when I'm a little hoarse.

WHAT WAS THE MOST EMBARRASSING THING THAT EVER HAPPENED TO YOU?

Debbie Lucia
Royal Oak, Michigan

Well, I can't tell you the most embarrassing! It's too embarrassing! The second most embarrassing thing happened when I was in fourth grade. I had to get up and do a book report in front of my class, and as I walked up the aisle, I heard people laughing behind me! I was nervous enough, anyway, so I tried to ignore it, but by the time I got to the front of the room, the whole class was laughing! I had a giant rip in the seat of my pants, and
