

You Are
There with David in England
CONTINUED

THOUGH DAVID AND the Partridges haven't had a hit record in England as yet, he was besieged by many excited fans! They followed him from hotel to the BBC TV Studios!

IN BUCKINGHAM PALACE SQUARE, David waits anxiously for 11 a.m. to strike so he can watch the changing of the Palace Guard. He agreed with other tourists—it's a magnificent sight!

IT WAS FUN and different doing interviews with British journalists because they asked questions that David hadn't heard for over two years, inquiring about how he got started!

ONE THING THAT really impressed Dave was the friendliness of the British people! Everywhere he went around London he found smiling faces and he was sorry he couldn't stay longer.

SPORTING FUR BOOTS that he bought while skiing in Switzerland and suede pants he bought in Italy, David looked really sharp when he met newsmen and fans in London.

WHEN HE RETURNED HOME, David admitted he was glad to be home, but that he would surely miss the slower pace of Europe. He said he wanted to plan another trip there to see other countries next year on vacation!
