EXCLUSIVE

Each month read all the fan club news about the Partridge Family right here in Cecelia Bonaduce's column!

"Dear Cecelia,

Hi! Sorry I haven't written, but traveling around Europe takes a lot out of a guy, and by the time I'm settled for the night, I'm really ready for some sleep!

You'll never believe this, but while I was in Italy, I met an old friend of yours! I was skiing, and I started a conversation with this nice guy named Dino. He asked me if I was on The Partridge Family, and I said yes! Then he asked me if I knew you (he told me that his sister goes to school with you, and that you've been friends for years). It was really a coincidence!

Everything is fine, and I've got some great stories to tell everybody when I get home! Say hello to the family, and all the Partridge fans when you're writing your next column!

Love,
David"

Well, obviously everything is fine with David! Since he asked me if I'd wish you well, I thought you might be interested in the whole letter! (I have to admit that I was very surprised to read that he had run into an old friend!) I can't wait to hear the stories David mentioned, and as soon as I do, you'll read all about them!

Danny received a letter from David too, and when he'd finished reading it, he announced that as soon as he was old enough, he was going to go to Europe alone too!

While David has been galavanting around Europe, the Partridges here in the U.S. have been hard at work! Susan Dey has been busy working on two movie roles, which makes her very happy.

"Last year, I almost got a part in a movie, but for one reason or another, I missed it. I was very disappointed, and this year I was so afraid the same thing would happen. I was so surprised...and delighted!" she said with a smile!

"I hope now that I feel better, I'll be able to do a few commercials. I was really unhappy when I got sick. Not just because I couldn't do the commercials, but my mother wouldn't let me go outside! I really got bored!"

Danny Bonaduce has been as busy as the rest of his co-stars! Besides doing a voice-over for Hanna-Barbra, and doing a cameo role in the Arte Johnson pilot "Call Home," Danny did his first magic act!

"I got an award from the College of Comedy, and they presented it to me at the Magic Castle. The next thing I knew, they asked me to do a magic show there the following Sunday! I was really excited, and I practiced all week! Some of the people who work at Magic Castle came to my house and helped me with my routine. But when Sunday came I was really nervous! I messed up a couple of the tricks, and everybody laughed, boy it was pretty funny," Danny admitted, "but most of the tricks were fine, and everyone seemed to enjoy the show. I was concentrating on the tricks so much that I almost forgot some of my lines! I really had fun through it all, and I really want to go back!"
