

16's SENSATIONAL S

FRIDAY Continued

THE BRADY BUNCH—ABC, 8 PM

A whole new batch of Brady Bunch fun is coming your way. This sensational six-some will be acting out antics that will bring them closer to your heart. Just take a gander at how much your friends have grown!

THE PARTRIDGE FAMILY—ABC, 8:30 PM

Here's why the best thing to do Friday night is to stay glued to the tube—right after The Brady Bunch comes the singing-est, swinging-est "family" of them all, The Partridge Family. David "Teen King" Cassidy is back with lots more tunes to delight you, along with smashing Susan Dey, devilish Danny Bonaduce, sassy Suzanne Crough and sweet Brian Forster!

THE SONNY & CHER COMEDY HOUR—CBS, 8 PM

Oh-oh! You'll have to choose between family fun and musical melodies! CBS-TV's Sonny & Cher Comedy Hour returns with more tunes, delightful comedy skits and super guest stars such as the J5.

THE LITTLE PEOPLE—NBC, 8:30 PM

But if you think that choice was hard, NBC's entry to the TV sweepstakes is The Little People. Brian Kelly plays "Dr. Jamison," a pediatrician who tells it like it is! This series is as contagious as the measles!

GHOST STORY—NBC, 9 PM

If you like the supernatural, then this is a show for you. Sebastian Cabot plays "Mr. Essex."

ROOM 222—ABC, 9 PM

What's your favorite classroom? Who's your favorite teacher? Who are your favorite students? Yep, Room 222 returns with those groovy hip cats, Eric Laneuville, Heshimu and David Jolliffe. P.S. Stay tuned—you'll be seeing lots more of Eric Laneuville this season.

BANYON—NBC, 10 PM

Did you ever wish you were a part of the 30s? Well, wish no more, cos NBC's Banyon brings it right to you. Its fads, its fashions, fables and foibles will be right in your very living room! Robert Forster plays "Banyon", a former cop who becomes a confidential investigator in the hot 30s. His flair and flamboyance are uniquely the style of the 30s.
