DISAPPOINTED

On July 15th when the Osmonds were on the "POP" TV special, starring Davy Jones, we had a bad rain storm. And wouldn't you know it? Just when Davy was introducing the Osmonds, the electricity went off! It didn't come back on until after the show. Boy, was I mad! I just hope they will be seen on the show again soon.

GOOD NEWS! THERE'S A STRONG CHANCE THAT THE "POP" TV SPECIAL WILL BE FILMED AGAIN WITH MANY OF YOUR FAVORITE SUPERSTARS. STAY TUNED TO FAVE FOR ALL THE DETAILS!

A SPECIAL LOVE

I'm writing to tell you that I read the August issue of FaVE in which "A Letter From David" appeared. I finished reading it in a daze because it said so much. Thank you, David, for writing it. It really meant a lot to me; it was written with a special kind of love that only David could possess!

WRITING DOWNHILL

Jay Osmond makes me so excited I can't see straight. But what's even worse, while I'm trying to write this, I can't even write straight!

LOVES CHAD TOO

I read FaVE all the time, but don't see a lot on my favorite actor, Chad Everett. I know he's a little older than people like Donny Osmond or Chris Knight, but I think he's groovy too! I was pleased to see in your recent Fax on Faves column that Chad and his wife will appear together in a movie. I can't wait to see it!

EMERGENCY!

Does anybody out there watch "Emergency?" I think that show has got two of the greatest guys in the world on there! If you don't know who I'm talking about, it's Randolph Mantooth and Kevin Tighe. I think they're dolls. Randolph also appeared on "Marcus Welby" over the summer and proved what a terrific actor he is. Let's see more on these groovy guys!

THE KING OF KINGS

My girlfriend and I had the opportunity of a lifetime when we got to meet Bobby Sherman at a radio station near our home. We shook hands and got to kiss him (a pic of us is enclosed!) and really had a memorable time. I know it's a day I'll never forget with one of the nicest people around.

STICK 'EM UP!

I'm an Osmond fan and sent in for my super love stickers with the Osmonds' pics. I couldn't believe how many I got (500) for such a reasonable price. Now I spend all my time trying to figure out new and unique places to put my stickers! Thanks so much for sending them!

SUPER GREAT GUY

I was lucky enough to go to one of Bobby Sherman's concerts in Cuyahoga Falls, and it was the greatest show I had ever seen. Bobby sang so many neat songs, I can't get their melodies out of my head! Bobby even took a note I handed to him. He's so sweet and kind, I just can't believe that he's for real. He's the greatest person that ever lived!

SUPER DUPER PARTY

We recently had a party "for" Donny Osmond. Actually, I should say it was a party in his favor, but we had a good time nonetheless. Here's a picture of my friend Barb with a Linus doll, which I thought came out real cute. By the way, since it was an Osmond party, we had lots of Osmond records to play. But best yet, was when the radio stations put on Donny's records too!

TEENAGE SUPERSTAR: DONNY

I've read about so many disc jockeys who are cruel to Donny Osmond and put him down when they play his records. But I wanted to tell you about our D.J. Ken Martin who works for WCOS Radio. After he finished playing Donny's hit song, "Too Young," he said "There goes Mr. Wonderful, America's teenage superstar, Donny Osmond!" (I fully agree with him!)

ONE IN A MILLION

This letter is directed to the girl who wrote that she was crazy about Merrill. What do you mean you don't know if anyone else agrees with you about Merrill being a cute guy? There must be 1,000,000 girls who agree with you, and I'm definitely one of them!
