

SUPER-SPECIAL NIGHT

FRIDAY

The Brady Bunch—ABC—8 PM

A whole new batch of Brady Bunch fun is coming your way. This sensational six-some will be acting out antics that will bring them closer to your heart. Take a gander at how your friends have grown. Beautiful Barry Williams is turning singing idol. Keep your eye on Chris Knight, cos he just gets handsomer and handsomer. L'il Mike Lookinland ain't so little anymore! Maureen McCormick is turning quite a few heads. Eve Plumb is more beautiful than ever. Sassy Susan Olsen continues to charm the stars right out of the sky.

The Sonny & Cher Comedy Hour—CBS—8 PM

Oh-oh, you'll have to choose between family fun and musical melodies, cos CBS-TV's Sonny & Cher Comedy Hour returns with more tunes, delightful comedy skits and guest stars.

The Little People—NBC—8:30 PM

But if you think that choice was hard, wait 'til you read this! NBC's entry to the TV-sweepstakes is The Little People. Brian Keith plays "Dr. Jamison," a pediatrician who tells it like it is. He doesn't wear a white coat and he doesn't tell you shots are not gonna hurt when he knows they will. "Dr. Jamison" has a doctor-daughter. "Ann," played by Shelly Fabares, and although they have their differences (professionally speaking, of course) they see eye to eye on most things. This series is as contagious as the measles.

Eric Laneuville

The Partridge Family—ABC—8:30 PM

Here's another reason why the best thing to do on Friday night is to stay glued to the telly—cos right after The Brady Bunch comes the sing-igest, swing-igest "family" of them all, The Partridge Family. David "Teen King" Cassidy will have lots more tunes to delight you with; smashing Susan Dey, fresh from her successful acting debut in MGM's Skyjacked, is back; devilish Danny Bonaduce returns after touring the country with a magic act, and making a dramatic TV appearance on KCET's Invitation To A March and a guest appearance in the comedy pilot CBS's Triple Play. Danny's somebody to watch—cos this kid gets cuter every episode, don'tcha think? They are, of course, joined by adorable Suzanne Crough and shy-but-nice Brian Forster.

Room 222—ABC—9 PM

What's your favorite classroom? Who's your favorite teacher? Who are your favorite students? Yep, Room 222 returns with history teacher Lloyd Haynes, hip guidance counselor Denise Nicholas and English teacher Karen Valentine. Those groovy hip cats, Eric Laneuville, Heshimu and David Jolliffe return to tear down the corridors each Friday night. (P.S. You'll be seeing a lot more of Eric Laneuville this season!)

Ghost Story—NBC—9 PM

If you like the supernatural, if ESP fascinates you, if moving objects send thrills and chills up your spine, then this is definitely the show for you. Sebastian Cabot plays "Mr. Essex." He will welcome new visitors to his home each week, but once inside, you'll be on your own. So, occult SPEC-ialists, the unworldly world of the extra-sensory is yours! All you have to do is flip your TV dial to NBC at 9 PM. (P.S. Quite a new role for Sebastian Cabot—remember him as "Mr. French" on Family Affair?)

Banyon—NBC—10 PM

Did you ever wish you were a part of the 30s? Well, wish no more, cos NBC's Banyon brings it right to you. Its fads, its fashions, fables and foibles will be right in your very living room! Robert Forster plays "Banyon," a former cop who's kicked off the force and takes up being a confidential investigator. He is a cool detective in the hot 30s.
