

Hello to You!

Happy back-to-school days! I hope you had a really terrific summer that's given you lots of memories to carry you through the coming year!

I know I've got lots of happy memories! Like the day Donny Osmond called me on the phone just because he felt like talking to someone who could get his message to you! The message? "You're so wonderful and I really love you lots!" Those were Donny's exact words and he wanted me to give them to you as soon as I could—and I did!

Other Osmond summer memories that'll stay with me are the wonderful trip I took with them to Hawaii to cover their Hawaii concert, playing football at the park with the whole Osmond clan and of course, the great concert the boys did here in Anaheim, California!

Of course my happy summer memories include a lot of your other faves as well! Going back every week to visit everyone on the Partridge set, the "belated" birthday party we gave David in June, visiting his third new house, and of course, sharing a day with Da-

BARRY AND CHRIS catch up on the latest in two favorite mags!

Still another surprise! Turn to page 29 and see just what's up with Michael Gray! He's in Hawaii and having the time of his life shooting several shows for a new, neat television series, "The Little People!"

Michael says he fell in love with Hawaii just the way David did, so don't be surprised if you discover he's spending an awful lot of time there!

The Partridges closed down their set for about 4 weeks (the end of August and beginning of September) and everybody had a nice, long, well-deserved rest!

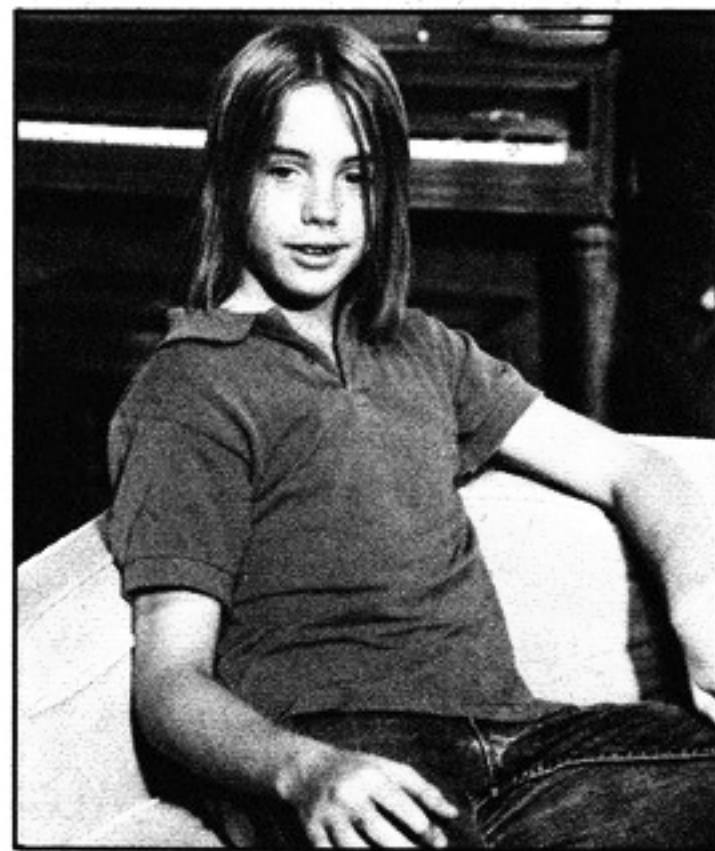

David took the opportunity to visit some friends who live on a farm in Maryland, where he was able to do some horseback riding, swimming, and just plain loafing! He had plans to go back to England for a while but they didn't come through so he went—guess! Right! To Hawaii!

When I see him next time I'll ask him if he had a chance to get together with Michael Gray! David and Michael have a lot of the same interests (scuba diving, water skiing, horseback riding) and they'd probably be great friends!

Had an interview with that handsome "Alias Smith and Jones" co-star Roger Davis and I'll give you all the details on that next month! In the meantime, I hope you like this issue of Tiger Beat Spectacular! We've got secret handwritten messages from the Bradys (just flip over one page), a fashion trip with Maureen McCormick (page 23) and a story on Donny and Jimmy you might find very interesting. (See pg. 67).

And don't forget to enter our Thanksgiving Day feast-contest on page 42, and for the first time, you can compare your special guys as they all line up for you together—barechested!

SHAUN CASSIDY loves to visit his half-brother David on the PF set!

I hope I'll be hearing from you this month! I really love getting letters from you because then I know exactly what you'd like to see in your magazine! Oh! we've got a new music column in this issue—Music Notes—so let me know what you think of it!

Before I go I wanted to tell you how excited I am over the new Tiger Beat! Tiger Beat Spectacular's sister magazine now has over 100 pages and it's packed full of everything you want to know about beauty, fashion, boys—and of course—your special guys! It's all in the November issue of Tiger Beat, on sale October the 10th! Till next month then.

Love, Sharon

EDITOR'S INSIDE STORY! BY SHARON LEE

vid and our "Fly to Hollywood and Kiss David winner" (see page 34).

I had a super end of summer surprise when I went down on the "Sonny and Cher Show" set to get caught up on all the news with Bobby Sherman! I hadn't seen Bobby for quite some time—he's been busy doing guest shot roles, visiting New York, and recording) and it was nice talking to him again.

Bobby's really a wonderful person—so warm and interesting to talk to! And, he always remembers my name, though we don't seem to get together as much these days. But, seeing Bobby again on the show made me realize all over that he's simply terrific and I'm going to make it a point to get together with him more. That way I can let you in on all the last-minute happenings of his life!

Bobby's decided to keep his moustache for a while and he's thinking about buying a NEW car! We get the first pix if he does! His dogs Dopey and Goofy are cuter than ever and Bobby loves them lots!

DAVID'S thrilled with his new car!
