

Which Fave Is You

When girls say they are in love, they expect that love to last forever and ever. But, for that love to last an eternity, the two people involved must be perfectly matched with each other. So, FaVE has decided to test if you are in love with your perfect match or not.

Simply check the box marked YOU if the statement matched your thoughts and feelings. Afterwards, check to see which fave you matched up with the most often. Who knows? You might discover a new love for yourself or strengthen the love you already have!

A vacation time would find you running off to the tropical islands of Hawaii so you could scuba dive in the day and share romantic sunsets in the evening with HIM!
