

TIGER BEAT SPECTACULAR

WINNER'S CIRCLE

PRIZE

David's poem pick of the month was from Mandy Blacker of Baltimore, Ohio. In return for her message David's sending her exactly what she asked for—a personal letter and an autographed copy of his LP "Cherish!"

DAVID, DAVID

David, David, I declare
When I want you, please be there!
It's lonely when you go away,
Will you be back another day?

David, David, say you'll stay,
You warm me like a gold sun ray
I'll never leave, I'm true to you,
Without you my whole world is blue.

DONNY RULES ALL

I don't have to look in a crystal ball,
to know who rules my heart and all,
He's not too young or old for me,
He suits me very perfectly!

His deep brown eyes and darkest hair,
His loving heart—the way he cares,
The smile he flashes right my way
Making me love him every day!

And like he sings, maybe we're "Too Young,"
We must wait for our song to be sung,
Still, love grows and fills my soul
For Donny Osmond is my goal!
