FOR CHAD EVERETT

Boy! You're such a handsome looking man and everything and I've been wondering if everywhere you go girls recognize you and want your autograph? Or do you hide behind shades? Janet Rollins, Idaho Falls, Idaho.

Dear Janet,

First I must say thank you for such a flattering compliment! Usually when I go places, girls stop and ask for my autograph or come up to me and shyly ask a few questions. Lots of times in restaurants I notice that someone has recognized me by the way they keep looking at me and then whisper in their friend's ear! Yes, most of the time I do wear shades, but that doesn't fool everyone!

FOR JIMMY OSMOND

Are you ever going to officially join with your brothers? Do you want to? Denise Conners, Palo Alto, Calif.

Dear Denise,

You bet! I'd love to sing with my brothers, but that isn't up to me to decide. I respect my Mom & Dad and brothers' ideas and I think they know what's best for me right now.

FOR BEN MURPHY

When did you first start skiing? Do you like the snowmobile? Connie Damika, Webster, Mass.

Dear Connie,

I started skiing my last year in high school and I've been doing it ever since. As for the snowmobile, I think it's fantastic!

FOR RANDY JACKSON

How does it feel to be the youngest brother of the most popular soul group? Laudy Kent, Bronx, N.Y.

Dear Laudy,

It's really neat to have the brothers I have, especially 'cause they're so groovy! There's always so much excitement going on and it makes me feel proud to know they're so popular. But sometimes I wish we had more time to play ball together!

FOR MICHAEL GRAY

I'd like to know how you got started in acting? Also, who cuts your hair? Patty Preston, Plattsburgh, N.Y.

Dear Patty,

I was about 14 when I decided I'd like to give acting a try, so I joined a summer stock company. Every summer after that I did summer stock until I got out of school. Then I studied at the Pasadena Playhouse for two and one half years and that lead to a couple of TV appearances. Things just started happening! A good barber friend of mine cuts my hair the way I like it!

FOR SUSAN DEY

Is it true that your a vegetarian and will never eat meat? Anna Myers, Portland, Oregon.

Dear Anna,

No. I'm not a vegetarian, but I'm not that crazy about meat either. I love most every kind of vegetable and I love munching on raw carrots, celery and string beans. I get my fill of meat, when the urge hits me!
