OVERSEAS PALS

I am an English teacher at a high school in Korea as well as director of the International Students Friendship Society. Our students are eager to have pen friends in the United States and learned about TIGER BEAT through the American Embassy in Korea. I think that this kind of friendship would be educational and fun for the students, so please print my letter with our address. Thank you.

STILL WANTS MORE

This letter is directed to Rosie and Ann Marie who wrote to TIGER BEAT a few months back about their David Cassidy pictures. All I read is TIGER BEAT and FaVE and I have every edition that's ever been out! Altogether I have about 300 pictures of David and they're all in color. I'm far from through collecting them, however—I still want to have lots more!

"FLIPPING" OUT!

The flip side of Bobby Sherman's most recent single, "Together Again," is a wonderful song. The name of it is "Picture a Little Girl" and it was written by Bobby himself. Whoever says Bobby doesn't know where it's at ought to listen to this song. They'll change their opinion very fast!

NEW FAVES' CHARITY

I've been a devoted reader of TIGER BEAT for the last five years and know that your magazine has a tremendous following. It is due to the excellence in reporting about the faves and their lives, and I think that your magazine can be of some help to me. I've been planning the Faves' Charity which is going to be a charitable organization and fan club combined, and those who join can learn how to support their fave while saving a life. If any TIGER BEAT readers are interested in knowing more, please write to me.

FAVE-TYPE TELETHON

I just moved to Raleigh, North Carolina, and I must admit that I moved at the perfect time! We just had a telethon here to raise money for Cerebral Palsy, and received help from some of the nicest stars. Among the celebrities answering the telephones were the Hager Twins, Dennis James, Ruth McFadden, Robert Reed, Demeteiss James and Danny Bonaduce. Last year North Carolina was the state that contributed the most to C.P., and I hope we continue to do as well. I think as long as we have such great stars helping out, it'll make all the difference!

A-L-A-N SPELLS LOVE!

Everybody knows I'm an Osmond fan, and the other day I went to all extremes to prove it! I was sitting at the breakfast table before going off to school and decided to do something constructive with my meal. So I took out the box of alphabet cereal from our cabinet, and at random tried to spell an Osmond name! Well, wouldn't you know it? The letters A-L-A-N formed in the bowl, and if I must admit it myself, it made the day get off to a brighter start!
