

Q TIGER BEAT A answers

Q I'm having an argument with my girlfriend about when Bobby Sherman's album "Here Comes Bobby" turned gold. I say the answer is the summer of 1970, but she insists it was early 1970. Who's right?

A You're right—"Here Comes Bobby" was certified gold July 8, 1970. Your girlfriend, however, is on the right track, because in early 1970 (February 2nd) his album "Bobby Sherman" became gold.

Q I am a faithful reader of your magazine, and Q & A is my favorite department. It's the first thing I flip to in each new issue! Please tell me the real names of the following people: Chad Everett, Bobby Sherman, Ben Murphy, and Sonny & Cher. Thank you!

A Thank you for your nice letter! We're glad to help you out. Chad's real name is Raymond Cramton; Bobby's is Robert Cabot Sherman; Ben's is Benjamin Edward Murphy, and Sonny's & Cher's are Salvatore Bono and Cherilyn (LaPierre) Bono.

CHAD BEN

Q When David Cassidy was presented with the Golden Apple Award towards the end of last year, can you tell me what he earned it for?

A David was the recipient of the Golden Apple Award for being best male newcomer of the year!

Q I seem to be the only remaining fan of the Beatles, and I'd like to know what their wives' maiden names were? I'm sorry that there aren't any more of us fans around!

A Cheer up. Lots of people still like the Beatles, and TiGER BEAT'S no exception! Their wives' maiden names are Maureen (Cox) Starr; Linda (Eastman) McCartney; Pattie (Boyd) Harrison, and Yoko (Ono) Lennon.

PAUL JOHN

Q Please tell me something about John Kongos. I just bought his album and single, "Tokoloshe Man," and think he sounds great. He even reminds me of John Lennon!

A Not only is John Kongos' voice like John Lennon's, he looks very much like him too! John was born September 6, 1945, in Johannesburg, South Africa. At the age of 18 he began getting an interest in music, and he moved to London to seek a musical career. He worked with several groups, but it wasn't until recently that he received national recognition with his hit "Tokoloshe Man." And even though his success was long in coming, it couldn't have happened to a nicer guy!

JOHN GARY

Q What's this I hear about Gary Rist of "Young Graduates" fame doing a record? Is this the truth?

A What you "hear" is what you get! It's absolutely true! Gary, who starred last year in the movie "The Young Graduates" will be doing another movie soon ("The Ultimate Thrill") as well as going into recording. He has an absolutely dreamy voice and used to sing with the Kids of the Kingdom at Disneyland, in California.

Q I just received the David Cassidy fan club kit and loved the special calendar inside. It says that David's brother Patrick will be ten on January 3rd. Does that mean he already turned ten, or will he be ten in 1973?

A Patrick turned ten in January of this year. Unless it says otherwise on the calendar, all the dates apply to events in 1972. If anyone else is interested in joining David's exciting club, flip to page 59 right now!

PATRICK MIKE

Q I've heard that Mike Clifford has been doing lots of recording lately and that he'll be singing the theme song for a new movie. Please tell me what the movie is, and could you also run a recent picture of him? My girlfriend saw him in person and said that he's a doll!

A Here's Mike's picture, and you can see for yourself that your girlfriend is right! He'll be singing the theme song for the movie "Necromancy," an exciting flick about reincarnation. Be watching for it!
