Towards the end of the reception, my grandfather (who sang at the wedding) announced that the bride and groom were going to waltz! Billy (my new husband) painfully smiled through the whole thing, since he had just learned to waltz the night before! Everything went smoothly,

THIS IS THE last time you'll see David's Corvette—he's got a BMW!

as we waltzed to a recording of "Out of My Dreams," from "Oklahoma," sung by Shirley Jones! When we started the record, and caught a glimpse of Shirley's surprised expression! She was really flattered!

Brian Forster kept all the younger girls entertained, and helped Danny fill the punch glasses. Danny finally got tired of pouring, and asked when I'd cut the cake! Well, we cut the cake all right, and Danny and Brian were at the front of the line!

David said he was very surprised to take a bite of cake, and find out that it was a spice cake instead a traditional white cake.

SNAP, SNAP, David's a real camera nut, so watch it when you visit the set!
