

Cassidy Set for London

■ NEW YORK—David Cassidy is currently making his first visit to London for personal appearances. Cassidy will appear on the English TV program "Top of the Pop," and be the subject of a 34 minute BBC documentary — "David Cassidy Around London."

In addition, Cassidy will be holding meetings to firm up his first European concert tour, which is slated for the spring of 1973. Cassidy will also visit several European capitals by charter jet— all on the same day!

David Cassidy will be in town again next week to finalize details of a concert tour for next year with Robert Patterson. During his visit, Cassidy will stay on a specially chartered yacht on the Thames.
