

Star On Traves

Whoever believes that having a hit record goes straight to a singer's head, just doesn't know Jonathan Edwards! Although his friends tried convincing him to buy a flashy new Limousine following the success of "Sunshine," Jon declined and went out and bought a "fancy truck" instead! . . . If all goes as planned, Bobby Sherman is slated for an August 27th appearance at Pacific College in Vancouver, B.C. . . . Didya

know that scalpers were selling tickets at the last minute to David Cassidy's Madison Square Garden concert for $100.00 and $150.00???. What's even more surprising is that despite the cost, a good number of teenagers were buying them! . . . Elvis Presley announced that he'll be doing three shows at Madison Square Garden this year . . . At the time we go to press, Michael Jackson is set to sing "Ben's Song," the title tune from the "Willard" sequel, "Ben." The flick centers around the invasion of thousands of rats on the rampage in a large city. Incidentally, one of the stars in the movie is Meredith Baxter, whom you may remember from the "Partridge Family's" New Year's Eve show when she starred as a young heiress . . . Donny Osmond will make a guest appearance this season on an episode of "Here's Lucy" . . . The most incredible concert in history was staged at the Inglewood Forum recently to raise money for Senator McGovern's campaign. Carole King, Barbra Streisand, and James Taylor headlined the show with guest ushers and usherettes including Peggy Lipton, Goldie Hawn, Jack Nicholson, Michele Philips, Julie Christie, Cass Elliot, Sally Kellerman, Warren Beatty, James Earl Jones, Jacqueline Bisset, Gene Hackman, and Elliott Gould! Needless to say, it was a complete sell-out, and a very exciting show! . . . Elton John was one of the celebrities on hand for the arrival of our astronauts at Houston, upon their return from the moon . . . Did ya know that Nilsson's recent hit song "Without You" is a Badfinger composition? . . . By the way, if you're a fan of Harry Nilsson's, you'll be interested to know that he's working on an album in England with back-up artists including Ringo Starr, Nicky Hopkins (formerly with Quicksilver), Peter Frampton (ex-Humble Pie) and—for one track only ("I'd Rather Be Dead")—a choir of old age pensioners, the eldest of whom is 96! . . . James Taylor is re-recording an album he did last year which was never released . . . The Osmonds became "box office champions" at the Nashville Municipal Auditorium with their recent sell-out concert. The previous record holder was the presentation of "Jesus Christ Superstar" . . . Contrary to the popular belief that all girls are interested in "Women's Lib," the female rock group, Fanny, hired three male brass players to do back-up at their concerts, proving that they're "equal opportunity employers!" . . . Michael Gray will play the part of a rock musician in an upcoming "Marcus Welby." The plot sounds interesting, so keep your eyes open for it! . . . Chad Everett and his beautiful wife, actress Shelby Grant, will star together in "Seven Inch Wilderness," a movie about man's struggle for
