And about Shirley's taking off—She and David's manager both took off soon after the controversial picture and story on David appeared. Shirley also cancelled her White House Press Correspondents Dinner where she was to sing the Oklahoma score. Who knows for sure why they went away for a rest—maybe to get away from studio executives who

And X-rated auction on television! Well, almost. It was the annual KCET fund-raising auction telecast for several nights on the local station. Usually many unique items are donated by stars. But the stars are not the only ones in the nude at the Ivar. A group of nudists took over the entire balcony and viewed the performance without any clothes on. Even the ushers were wearing their birthday suits.

TERRY MELCHER, as administrator of his dad's estate, filed a suit against his mom, DORIS DAY. It's said, though, that quite a sum is owed Doris from her husband's estate. For more info, read the September issue of Screen Stars magazine.

It was Emmies galore for The Mary Tyler Moore Show—but no Emmy for Mary herself this year, despite her fine job.

Don Mitchell, new husband of lovely Judy Pace, attends a bash for the cast and crew of Ironside. With him is his talented co-star Don Galloway and his wife. Wonder if Raymond Burr is near—or on his own tropical island in the Pacific.
