

Adorable Danny Bonaduce, young star of The Partridge Family TV show, must certainly make his mother proud of him.

Cloris Leachman is known around Hollywood for her striking intelligence. Walter Cronkite appreciates this in her.

Reel World

By Steve Lewis

critics, they certainly weren't the popular favorites. There are many who hope that next year's prizes will reflect TV watchers' favorites more.

Speaking of JOHNNY CARSON, wasn't there a bit of feedback from the Governor's mansion when NANCY REAGAN appeared on Johnny's first show from the west coast. Nancy, who was charming and gracious, hadn't counted, it was reported, on so many off-color remarks—even though they were made after she made her appearance.

Hasn't that PETER BOGDANOVICH-CYBILL SHEPHERD rumored romance cooled off a bit? Australia reports that when the couple arrived to promote The Last Picture Show down under, it looked like just friendship between the two. Maybe RYAN O'NEAL would know . . . he and POLLY BOGDANOVICH, Peter's wife, keep in close touch.

Just why has ELIZABETH MONTGOMERY been keeping so quiet in recent months? Now the story is that she has been trying to save her marriage to WILLIAM ASHER, even though officially everything is "fine."

Everything is fine between NATALIE WOOD and BOB WAGNER—it's only a few legal complications regarding the settling of Nat's affairs following her recent divorce that is holding up the wedding . . . which seems to have had an upsetting effect on TINA SINATRA! Tina, who has been fighting the battle of the bulges, has had to admit that she can't lose weight by herself. She went to Duke University for the Rice Diet, you'll recall, but it looks like she's picked up a bit more "excess baggage" since her return to Tinsel Town.

Warren Beatty and Julie Christie joined forces as ushers at the well-attended Hollywood rally for George McGovern.

Meanwhile, FRANK SINATRA, who'll have hosted a gala birthday party for VICE PRESIDENT SPIRO AGNEW by the time you've read this, is still dating LOIS NETTLETON, HOPE LANGE (whom GLENN FORD has been seeing again) and TIFFANY BOL-LING—but guess who else? None other than SHIRLEY JONES! Shirley and Frank got together for a quiet little dinner or two and had a fine old time for themselves. Of course, JONATHAN LUCAS and Shirley have gotten together even more often in recent weeks. And for the first time in a long time, Shirley dated her estranged husband, JACK CASSIDY, who is back in town after having starred in a flop on Broadway. That doesn't mean the