MACRAME & NEEDLEPOINT SECTION

Wow! It isn't a mirage—it's a needlepoint likeness of David Cassidy! TiGER BEAT arranged for a well-known Hollywood artist to draw David's face on a needlepoint canvas, all ready for you to stitch up! This groovy pic can be made into a cozy pillow or a purse or a framed picture or...let your imagination go! The kit, however, won't be ready to send for a while yet...first, we want to know who else you want to needlepoint for your very own! Maybe you'd like to have Donny, Susan or one of the J-5 or...well, just list your faves on the coupon below and, sooner than you think, you can be resting your head next to the superstar of your choice!

The kits will include the painted canvas, all the yarn you'll need, a needle, and complete instructions for stitching and finishing. The kits, which you couldn't buy in any store for less than $25, will be yours for less than $10—and nobody else in the world will have these exciting, exclusive kits because YOU tell us exactly what you want. Be sure to watch for full information and the final choice of kits in an upcoming TiGER BEAT. The sooner you let us know, the sooner we can have the kits available, so send the coupon today!

And, if you can't even sew on a button, you're not to worry: Needlepoint's even easier than that. Take a look on the next page for easier-than-easy instructions for needlepoint-ing.

Our second do-it-yourself surprise is macrame! If you've tied a shoelace or knotted string on a package, you can macrame—which is just a fancy word for fancy knotting! Macrame can be used to make purses, wall hangings, belts, place mats, vests, just anything! Complete instructions for the basic knots are also on the following pages. The knots we show are all you'll need to knot up a handsome key ring or a great belt! In fact, we've seen a super macrame key ring of Donny Osmond's, and we're putting together full directions on how to make one just like Donny's! And you've seen Susan Dey in lots of smashing macrame fashions, including a really fantastic belt. Well, we've also got full instructions for Susan's belt! Interested? Let us know on the coupon, and we'll get it all together for an upcoming TiGER BEAT! Tell us your wishes today and you'll see your wishes come true in TiGER BEAT tomorrow!
