

singing tours. He said that he'll only sing one or two songs for awhile, until he gets more confident.

"I'd just be too scared to go out in front of an audience, and sing a lot. But sometimes it might be good to sing... I don't want people to get tired of me!" he laughed.

Danny may be very modest about his own talents, but he's the first to praise others! For example, the Bonaduces were at home watching "The Partridge Family" last Friday, and Mr. Bonaduce mentioned that Brian Forster was very good on the drums. Danny nodded in agreement and said,

"He sure is good! I couldn't believe it! The first time I heard him play, I was really surprised. He's great!"

PARTRIDGE MAILBOX

Dear Cecelia,

Did Danny, or David get a new dressing room this season? I was lucky last year, and got to visit the Partridge set and if I get to go again, I want to be able to find them!

Peace,
Margie Field

Dear Margie,

David Cassidy now has Bobby Sherman's old dressing room... right next to Shirley's. Danny is still in the old dressing room, but with new features... now he has a refrigerator, and his own bathroom.

Dear Cecelia,

I just met David Cassidy and Shirley Jones last week, and I really liked them. They were very nice to me, and I felt like they were my friends. They really looked skinny, though, compared to the way they look on TV. Were they sick, or what?

Patrice

Dear Patrice,

No, they weren't sick. A television camera adds ten pounds, though, so when you catch a glimpse of your favorite movie or TV star in person, they always look thinner.

BEING BACK ON the set means back on bicycles again! Everyone rides!

Dear Cecelia,

Does Danny ever wear jeans at home, or does he get dressed up like he does on the show?

Partridge fan,
Mona Murphy

Dear Mona,

Danny wears jeans almost all the time when he is off the set. He especially likes flared jeans, so he can slip them over boots!

Dear Cecelia,

Does Suzanne Crough like to eat on the set or off during her lunch break. I've been down to the studio at lunch time, and wait at the gate, but I haven't seen her.

Peace,
Jerry Francis

Dear Jerry,

Suzanne almost always eats lunch on the lot, but don't worry! She often rides her bike down to the gate to visit with fans!
