questions

Q. I'd like to know whether or not David Cassidy ever sold his blue Mustang? If so, what kind of car does he have in its place, and what color is it?

A. David sold his Mustang early last year, and was gifted with a white Corvette Stingray (with a rich black interior) from Screen Gems. It's a beautiful car—you can't miss David when he drives by!

Q. I'd like a few facts on the Carpenters. Do they have middle names, and when were they born? Which records of theirs are gold?

A. Karen Anne and Richard Lynn were born March 2, 1950, and October 15, 1946, respectively. They presently make their home in Downey, California, with their parents, although they hail from New Haven, Connecticut. At the time of this writing the Carpenters' gold records include "Close to You," "We've Only Just Begun," "For All We Know," "Rainy Days and Mondays," and "Superstar." Their gold albums include "Close to You" and "Carpenters."

COOKIE

Q. Please tell me how David Cassidy's back-up musician, Steve "Cookie" Ross, got his nickname. Thank you.

A. "Cookie" earned his nickname after rehearsing with David because of the way he "cooks" on the guitar!

Q. I know the real ages of the kids on the "Brady Bunch," but I'd like to know what ages they're supposed to play on television. Can you help?

A. O.K.! The ages of the Bradys for this season are: Barry, 17; Chris, 14; Mike, 11; Maureen, 15; Eve, 13, and Cindy, 10.

Q. I heard that David Cassidy has three step-brothers. Is this true?

A. The truth is that David has three half-brothers, Shaun, Patrick, and Ryan! They are the children of Jack Cassidy and Shirley Jones.

Q. I'm still a big fan of the Cowsills and want to know if Paul's wife's name is Mary or Marie. I think she's very pretty!

A. The new Mrs. Cowsill is very pretty, and the lucky gal's name is Mary.

Q. I heard that Pat Boone's girls, the Boone Sisters, are now recording artists. Is that true?

THE BOONE SISTERS

A. Yes, the talented girls in the Boone family are recording artists, and really sing delightful songs!

Q. Do the Brady Bunch kids have any albums out yet?

A. Yes, they certainly do, and it's one you'll love listening to! It's called "Meet the Brady Bunch" on the Paramount label!

OLIVER

Q. I just heard some albums by Oliver, and wanted to know a few things about him. I love his record "Good Morning Starshine"!

A. Oliver, whose real name is William Oliver Swofford, was born February 22, 1945, in North Wilkesboro, North Carolina. He stands 5'9", weighs 150 lbs., and has light brown hair and blue eyes. In school he majored in radio, television and motion pictures, which tells us why becoming an entertainer was the natural thing for him to do!

Q. Do any of the Osmonds have blue eyes?

A. Yes, three of the lighter-eyed Osmonds take after their dad, and they're Virl, Merrill and Jimmy!

Q. I was piecing together the four parts to the huge David Cassidy pop-out poster from TIGER BEAT and found that I am missing the August issue with one of the parts in it. All I see is how to get the set by ordering the four posters altogether, but I'd like to know if there's another way to order just the one part that I'm missing?

A. There sure is another way, and all you have to do is check out our back issue ad on page 72. Just send in for the issue you're missing, and make your wall-size poster complete!

Q. Did Carole King write "I Feel the Earth Move"?

A. Yes, she certainly did!

CAROL

JIMMY

Q. One of my friends said that Jimmy Osmond was hit by a car and is now in the hospital. Please tell me it's not true.

A. Don't believe a word of it—it's absolutely false. Jimmy is feeling fine and has been in no accidents!

Q. Does Shirley Jones have any pets?

A. Shirley has a miniature Schnauzer
