

TV TO TUNE IN TO THIS FALL!

Every season brings more and more exciting shows to television, and this season is better than ever! Read below for a sneak preview of some of this year's favorites!

MICHAEL DOUGLAS (yes, it's Kirk's son) stars in "The Streets of San Francisco," a series about an older policeman (Karl Malden) teamed up with a younger one! Watch the fun! (ABC)

ABOVE: JANE ACTMAN AND JOHN CALVIN join Paul Lynde for his new show, Wednesday nights. Paul Lynde plays a lawyer always at odds with his son-in-law. Only hang-up: Genius son-in-law can't hold down a job, which sends Paul up the Establishment wall! Other new ABC shows include "The Julie Andrews Show," Julie hosting an hour-long musical-variety show; "The Men," which is a three-in-one series ("The Delphi Bureau," about an investigator working for the President of the United States... "Jigsaw," another police show, this time on the missing persons bureau... and "Assignment: Vienna," with Bob Conrad as a U.S. agent in Europe working to eliminate crime). BELOW: Here are some of your favorites, returning: Happy David "Keith" Cassidy will look for you every Friday night on "Partridge Family" and pretty Maureen McCormick will do the same on "Brady Bunch"! "Marcus Welby," "Alias Smith and Jones" return, and school's in for the "Room 222" group, back in full force on Friday nights. (ABC)

READY FOR THAT SHOT NOW? ABC's "Temperature's Rising" looks at the funny side of hospital life. Cleavon Little, a young doctor, teams up with Nancy Fox (student nurse) for laughs!
