

Kingpin Cassidy

'We've sold over 20,000,000 records'—hard to believe? Not if you're talking to current pop king David Cassidy. With David as lead singer, the Partridge Family LPs have all sold over a million copies, while his own records, starting with 'Cherish', have never been out of the gold. An all-round entertainer with an international following, David's going to be a kingpin for a long time yet!

Romping With Slade

Over the past year, they've sold more than 12,000,000 records, played hundreds of live gigs and been voted pop group of the year—you've guessed it—it's Slade! 'We just try to appeal to the masses,' says lead singer Noddy Holder as spokesman for the group, with Slade singles and albums selling like hot cakes, the group's got plenty of appeal all right!

