

CELEBRITY PARTY-LINE

DAVID CASSIDY

TBS: If you were going with a girl and found out that she was dating one of your friends behind your back, how do you think you'd react?

David: Poorly—I'd feel defeated and deceived. I really believe for any relationship to be meaningful, honesty and trust have to be the foundation for that relationship. A girl who lied to me in that way would lose my trust forever!

TBS: Have you ever gone out on a blind date?

David: No—and I really don't want to.

TBS: What changes, if any, would you like to make in your part of Keith Partridge next season? Have him be a bit more serious or what?

David: I'd like to see Keith a bit more serious in that he's supposed to be the oldest male in the family. You know, make more important decisions and stuff. But we all have to remember that Partridge is a comedy show—so those important decisions can't be too "heavy."

TBS: Let's suppose you're walking in the park and you see a girl sitting on a bench alone, and you'd really like to meet her. How would you approach her?

David: I'd go up to her and say hello. Then I'd just try starting up a friendly conversation. If she's interested too, then she'll sit and talk with me—if she's not, then she can get up and walk away. At least I'll know I tried to get to know her. But if I was really hooked on her, I don't think I'd let her walk away from me very easily!

CHRIS KNIGHT

TBS: Now that the natural look is in, what do you really think about it?

Chris: I like it! I like girls to look unmade-up!

TBS: If you really wanted to impress a girl on a date, what sort of plans would you make?
