PAUL McCARTNEY and wings banned—again!

SPRING IS HERE! And all your faves are doing anything but sitting down and taking time to smell the flowers! THE OSMONDS will take time out from the filming of their new movie to play Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas this month. Their movie will be about wildlife preservation and pollution, and the boys will write the music and perform the soundtrack. They feel very strongly about pollution and wrote "Crazy Horses" to show their feelings—but "Crazy Horses" was banned in South Africa because authorities said the song was "drug oriented"!... It must be time-to-ban-a-song month, because PAUL McCARTNEY's group WINGS had their latest song ("Hi Hi Hi") banned in London recently, too! WINGS started their first British tour in nearly a year last month... THE OSMONDS will finish the filming in time to tour the U.S. again in September, then back to England and the rest of Europe in November... DAVID

CASSIDY's smack in the middle of his European tour! Of course he's sold out at every appearance. In fact the day after he announced he'd be at Wembley's Empire Pool in England, there were over 18,000 ticket requests received!... Since "The Partridge Family" filming is well over for the season, SUSAN DEY's been looking over film scripts and recently appeared on "Circle of Fear," a TV movie... DANNY BONADUCE's first single on MGM was produced by the OSMONDS' co-producer, MICHAEL LLOYD, and he'll have an album out soon... RICK SPRINGFIELD's second album "Rick Springfield (II)" is just out on Capitol. He ended up recording it in London after first planning it for there, then here in Hollywood, then half there and half here—he was traveling around so much, he said he's surprised he had the time to record at all! While we were talking with RICK, he was fantasizing about an ideal date with one of his fans (maybe you!). Usually RICK likes quiet at-home or dinner-and-movie dates, but he said if he had $1,000 to spend on just one evening, he'd hit all the amusement parks in town (especially Disneyland, which he loves!), go to the most expensive restaurant in town and order everything (but only finish half), then hire three helicopters and get all his friends together and fly to the beach and have a big bonfire! Wild!! When he fantasizes, he doesn't fool around!... RANDY JACKSON will be part of the JACKSON FIVE from now on (but it won't be "the Jackson Six"!). All the boys are big basketball fans, as you probably know, but although they live here in Los Angeles, JERMAINE says they aren't fans of The Lakers—they prefer the New York Knicks. A regular JACKSON FIVE TV show may be on the air beginning this fall, although it's not definite. You'll read about it here when it happens!... THE FIFTH DIMENSION, after doing many concert engagements, are back in the recording studio for a solid month starting April 3, so they'll be coming out with a new album and a new single shortly... CHEECH AND CHONG, the comedy team who records for A&M Records, will be in a full-length movie produced by LOU ADLER (who produces their records). CBS wanted them to do a weekly situation comedy show, but they decided to do the movie instead. They were
