

DAVID CASSIDY:

Can you resist his

LOU APPEAL!

YOU NEVER KNOW when you could be meeting up with delectable David Cassidy. He sure is a mover and in his travels David meets lots of lovable ladies. TEEN PIN-UPS has prepared this quiz for you so that you can discover if you are meant for David—or will your dreams of him only remain dreams? If you think you would find David's love appeal irresistible, then darling David is looking for you! Get a pencil right now and find out if you and David could be a great love-match!

1 You and David have a date. He calls twenty minutes before he's supposed to pick you up and tells you he's stuck at the recording studio and it will trim too much time off your date together if he has to come by to pick you up. He asks you to take a taxi up to the studio (he'll pay for it) and meet him there. You think it over and decide:

- (a) you don't want to travel there alone.
- (b) to plead for him to pick you up.
- (c) to go alone in a taxi; what's the big deal anyway?

2 David takes you to a movie. He's been working hard and falls asleep halfway through the show. What would you do?

- (a) Walk out of the theater in a huff
- (b) Gently wake him when the movie is over
- (c) Let him snooze but make up your mind never to go out with him again

3 David picks you up for a date. You are wearing your best new outfit and brand-new platform heels. He is wearing his scruffy jeans with funky patches and a Bullwinkle T-shirt. After you recover from the shock you:

- (a) plead a headache and say you don't feel like going out and would he mind spending the evening at your house—just the two of you.

- (b) excuse yourself and run to your room and change.
- (c) go out as you are but badger him all night with remarks about inappropriate attire.

4 After a wonderful date with David at an Italian restaurant, he bends over to kiss you goodnight. He reeks of garlic! Your reaction:

- (a) you recoil in horror.
- (b) hold your breath and kiss him.
- (c) kiss him—then tell him politely that the smell of garlic turns you off.

5 David is walking down the street with you, when he suddenly puts his arm around your shoulder. In the process his ring gets caught in your knit vest. You're afraid it will unravel and be ruined. You remark:

- (a) "Watch it, clumsy! You've caught my vest!"
- (b) "Oh, David, I think we're stuck together! Don't move while I un-do it."
- (c) "If you've ruined my vest you're going to buy me another!"

6 While out with David at a discotheque, autograph hounds hound him. He good-naturedly signs everyone's cocktail napkins, etc. while you sit there thinking. Then you decide to:

- (a) Stare straight ahead sulking.
- (b) Make pleasant small-talk with the people; you're glad that they love David, after all.
- (c) Wish that you were home and the evening was over because you're furious to have to have to share him like this.

7 Walking down a street with David, you both pass a poster advertising a rock concert. You ask him what he thinks of the headlining group. David puts them down, but they happen to be your favorite group. What would you do?

- (a) Tell him they're your faves and defend their music.
- (b) Ask him why he doesn't like them, but realize he's entitled to his own opinion.
- (c) Tell him that a lot of his music is light and carefree and point out that he's probably jealous of your faves.

8 It's your birthday and, predictably, thoughtful David shows up with a gift for you. You unwrap the lovely box and discover that he's gifted you with a plumber's manual! You know that David loves practical jokes but you're shocked that he should do this on your
