Hello!

Although December is traditionally a month of festivity and joy, this year it is especially true for our Superstars and their fans. Not only do we celebrate Christmas, but December is also full of birthdays! Beginning on the 9th, Donny Osmond will be celebrating his 16th birthday. When Donny was in London recently, he told me that one of the ways he was going to celebrate was to have his first date!

Two others who have already had their first date but who will still be celebrating are Susan Dey, who will be 21 on the 10th, while Dave Madden's birthday anniversary falls exactly ten days before Christmas. We at Superstar have taken the liberty of wishing everyone a happy birthday, as well as a very Merry Christmas.

As well as a time for celebration, December is also traditionally a time for reflection and thought about the New Year. We hope that you'll take a few minutes this year to think about how very much we all have to be grateful for: both Superstars and SUPER-fans alike.

Last but not least, a very Merry Christmas to you! See you in 1974!

Pat
