

WRITE ON

BRIAN'S BIRTHPLACE?

Please tell me where and when Brian Connolly of Sweet was born. — Sue Jackson, Hounslow, Middlesex.

● Brian was born in Blantyre, Scotland, on October 5, 1949, so he's 23 now.

NODDY'S HOBBIES?

"Does Noddy Holder have any hobbies?" — Janet Carpenter, South Shields, Co. Durham.

● Noddy enjoys watching films, reading Agatha Christie books and listening to records.

DONNY ON CRAZY HORSES?

"Do you know what kind of keyboard instrument Donny Osmond plays on 'Crazy Horses'?" — Marion Martin, Birmingham.

● It's a single keyboard organ Donny picked up on a recent visit to Japan.

MARTY'S ADDRESS?

"Where can I write to Marty Kristian of the New Seekers?" — Julie Peterson, Ashford, Kent.

● You can write to Marty c/o the New Seekers Fan Club, 29 St. James's Street, London, S.W.1.

● Rod's made four to date — 'An Old Raincoat Won't Ever Let You Down', 'Gasoline Alley', 'Every Picture Tells A Story' and 'Never A Dull Moment'.

TO JERMAINE

Dear Jermaine, Do you have a middle name? If so can you tell me what it is? Mine's Victoria, which I think is pretty unusual! — Carole.

Dear Carole,

Yes, I do have a middle name — and it's pretty unusual — it's Lajaune.

FROM YOU TO WAYNE

Dear Wayne, I'm an avid fan of the Osmonds', and I've been wondering if you prefer fans who scream at your concerts or fans who keep quiet. — Mindy.

Dear Mindy,

That's a very difficult question to answer. We don't prefer one type of fan over the other. We feel flattered when people come to our concerts, and don't mind how they choose to express their enthusiasm — whether it's by clapping, screaming or being quiet and listening! Just as long as people stay in their seats (so they don't get hurt or trampled), we enjoy seeing the audience having fun! — Wayne.

They'll all be here
