

a whole new body and soul

(TV Times will never be the same again!)

This week's second big issue of the 'new look' TV Times is really jam-packed with more pages, more colour features, more local TV news and more entertainment than ever before!

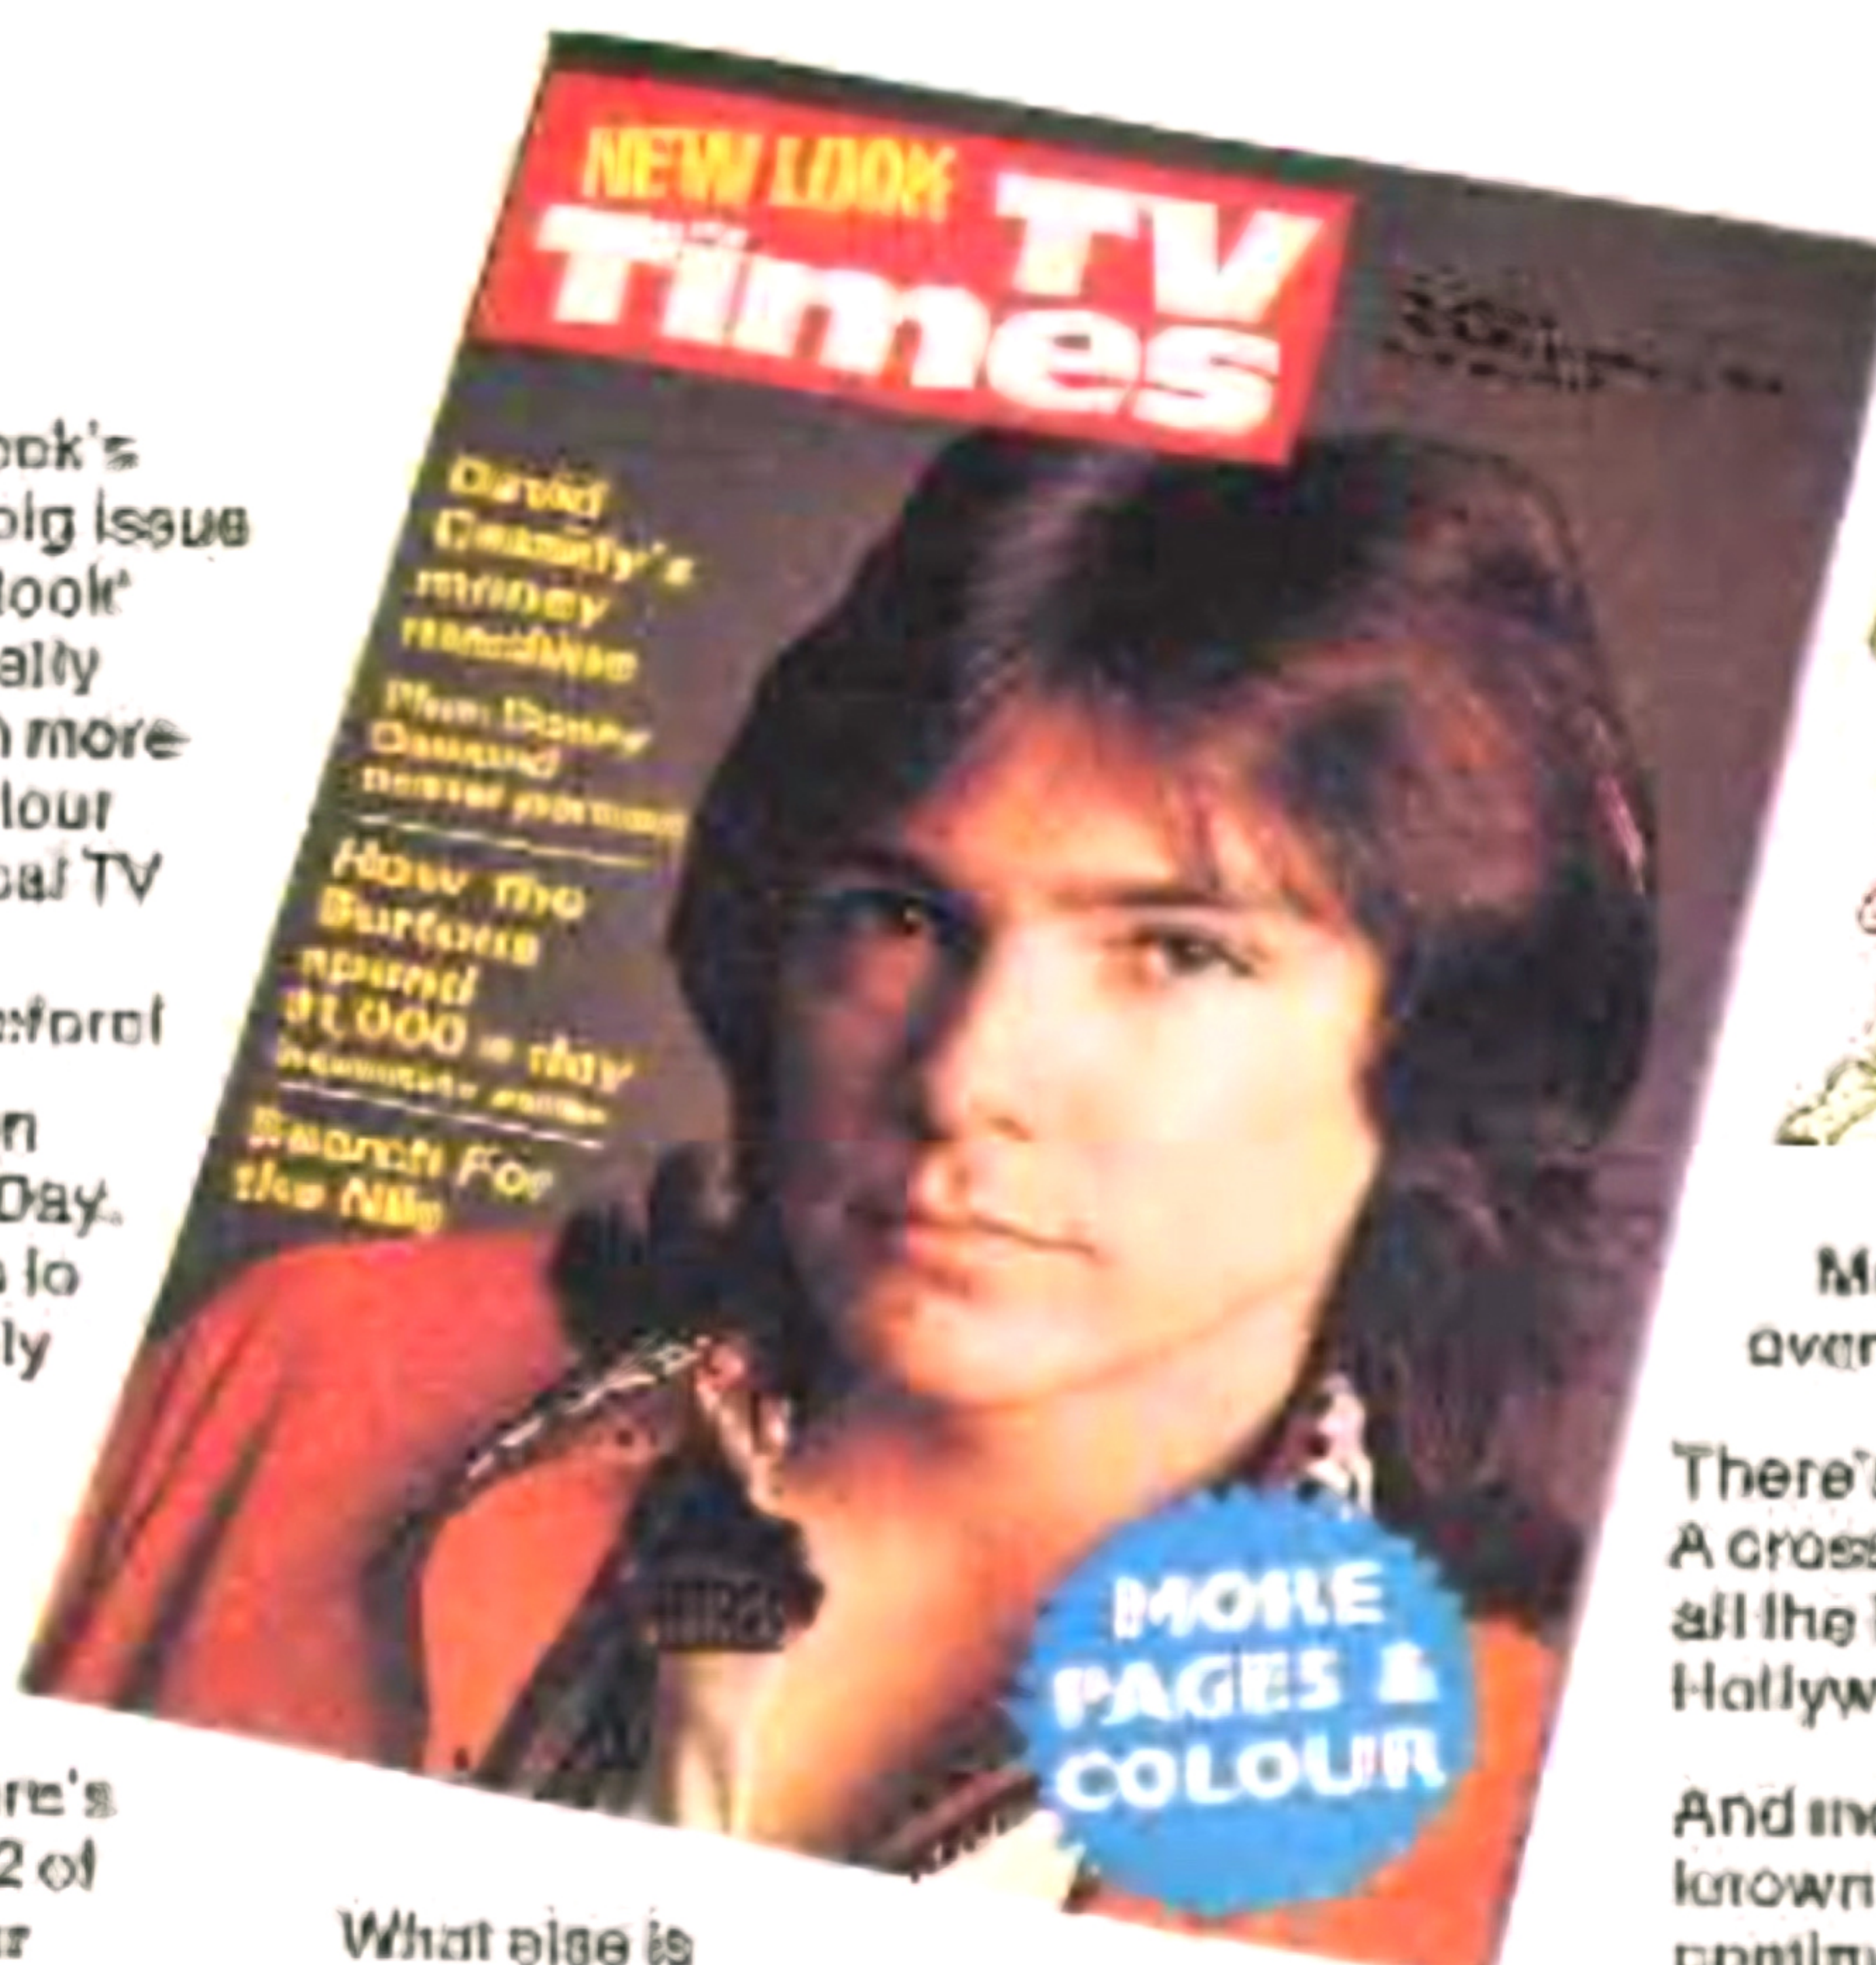

There's a big feature: exclusive on How the Burtons Spend $1000 a Day. Hollywood writer Alan Kent talks to the Burtons about their incredibly extravagant life style.

There's Part 2 of No. 98 star Johnny Lockwood's fascinating life story.

This week's big cover story on David Cassidy reveals that The Partridge Family is not just an entertaining TV show but a promotion gimmick for a multi-million dollar merchandising organisation.

Plus an exciting photo-feature on one of TV's great adventure stories, Search for the Nile. An exclusive photographic record of the filming on this epic documentary.

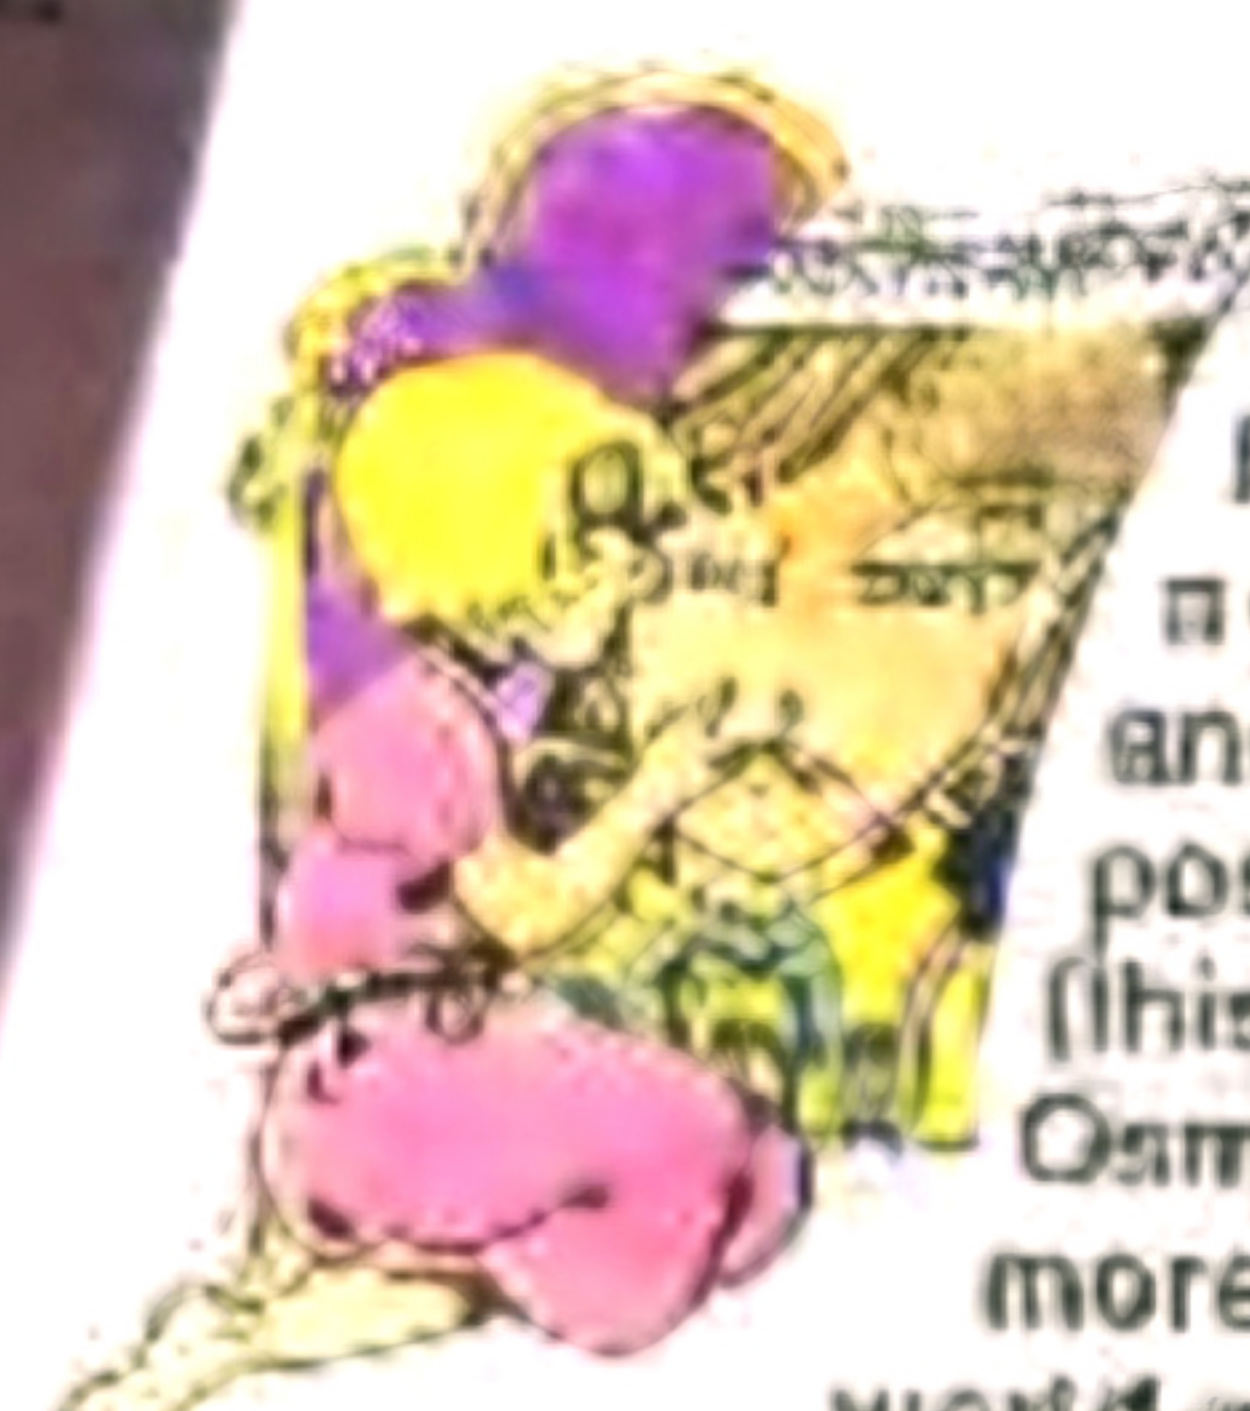

What else is new about the 'new look' TV Times? Just about everything! For starters all of the programmes are now at the back of the magazine.

Win a Hollywood Holiday!

Now in its second great week! The Hollywood holiday competition. More details in this week's issue of TV Times.

Don't miss it. You could win a free 2 week holiday in Hollywood staying at the luxurious Hollywood Holiday Inn.

There's a special fashion section, a children's page and centre spread poster portrait (this week, Donny Osmond). There's more local and world-wide news coverage. More colour features.

More stories on Australian and overseas TV personalities.

There's a new TV Sportsworld column. A crossword puzzle and horoscope. Plus all the latest gossip and pictures from Hollywood and London.

And more yet to come. Australia's best known TV critic, F. C. Kennedy, continues Looking-in With the Viewer. Bill (love him or hate him) Collins looks critically at the movies of the week.

There's the weekly recipe page. A cartoon strip. And you even get to have your say in Viewpoint letters to the editor.

Now you know why TV Times will never be the same again. It really is a whole new body and soul!
