Dear FLIP,

I read your magazine every month—mainly because David Cassidy, Donny Osmond and Bobby Sherman are my 13-year-old sister's favorite topics. You bring sunshine into my sister's world every month. If it wasn't for your magazine, there would be a total gap between us. But she thinks it "neat" that I can carry on conversations with her about her favorites. I know how it is—I once loved the Monkees! Cathi Ann; Michigan

Dear FLIP,

I just saw Davy Jones' show, "Pop!", and it was fantastic! Davy was dynamite!! I sure hope he gets his own program, because he really deserves it. Davy is the greatest singer and actor around. I will always love him. Cynthia Linton; Flushing, N.Y.

Dear FLIP,

This is just a note to thank you for my "Arts and Crafts Today" Leather kit. I was pleased and surprised to be a winner in the "How I Feel About Things Today" contest. I want you to know this is the first contest of this kind I have ever won. FLIP has always been one of my favorite magazines. I will continue to read and enjoy it in the future. Keep up the good work, and once again—thank you! Margaret K. Everett; Conetoe, N. C.

Dear FLIP,

Last month (Oct.) you asked us to write if we wanted to read more on Rick Leonard. Well, I do! He's cute and I know he will be a good actor. I was lucky enough to see him on The Dating Game and I thought he was great. Rick doesn't have any worries, because he will always have my love and support. If he ever starts a fan club, you bet I'll be the very first to join! Beverley Wallace; Toronto, Ont.

Dear FLIP,

I just saw Michael Jackson on American Bandstand and he was fantastic. When he sang the theme from Ben it made me want to see the movie more than ever! When he was asked if he and his brothers were friends with the Osmonds and he said yes, I was so happy, because I love both groups! Jodi Finkel; Bayside, N. Y.

Dear FLIP,

I saw the Grass Roots three times on May 27, 1972! It was in Atlantic City, N.J., and I was on the stage and got their autographs! I got Rob Grill's bass guitar pick, Reed Kailing's guitar string, Joel Larson's drumstick case, and Warren and Rob held my hand! That was a day I'll never forget, because the Grass Roots are the most wonderful people anyone could meet! Loretta Davies, Baltimore, Md.

Dear FLIP,

I usually don't write to magazines, but on July 8 the Grass Roots played a concert as part of Muskegon's Seaway Festival. This story is about the morning of the concert. I can tell for sure that FLIP doesn't lie—Reed Kailing does like baseball. Nobody knows where Rob and Warren were, but Joel, Reed and Virgil joined forces with "Pegasus" (a local group) and challenged the TRU jocks to a baseball game. (Radio station WTRU co-sponsored the concert.) Though they spent more time talking with us between innings than playing, everyone had a great time. The Roots won the game 17-14—they were playing to benefit the March of Dimes, and we all contributed happily! A Music Freak; Muskegon, Mich.

Dear FLIP,

Please print this letter, because I've just GOT to know if I am all alone in this thing or not. I am 14 years old and in grade 10, a would-be actress and amateur medium who thinks she has contacted Pete Duel. I say "thinks" because I have contacted "spirits" before, but after a couple of months they started saying exactly what I thought they would, and for other reasons I realized that there never were any "spirits." This time, however, we have been communicating for four or five months, and Pete is still as unpredictable as in the beginning, very often saying things I hadn't even thought of and sometimes changing a subject that I wanted to stay on. Not only that, but another girl in my school, whom I had never seen before, also claims to be communicating with him. This is not a crank letter, but an appeal to anyone else who may have similar experiences to please write and tell me about it. Also, if you have received a poem, especially one entitled "Revelation: On Being Dead" please send a copy of it along. All letters will be answered. Corie Daniels, c/o Shelley Godby, 206-6712 McKay Avenue, Burnaby, B. C., Canada
