. . . Katharine Ross and Conrad Hall tell you however that non-wedded-bliss works for them and prove it—it's seven years now.

Betty Hutton has had a lot of heartache and loneliness, but now the bouncy blonde's back to make a movie. It's entitled "Shades of Jersey" in which Betty plays a retired movie queen, which she has been too long. Betty was so desolate she told a columnist, who printed it, and presto came the movie to cheer her back to the spotlight.

Suzanne Pleshette is pleased because her TV series with Bob Newhart is grooving. She's been given an elegant new trailer dressing room . . . In another one we overheard Peggy Lipton singing away with her guitar. Peggy plans on doing some guest spots as a singing troubador female style.

In case you've been wondering what has happened to David Cassidy off TV! David decided to change his image to be his own age! He spent his fall vacation in London on the Thames on a yacht similar to the one Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton once parked there so they could bring their dogs along with them. The dogs couldn't go ashore, remember? In England David's also very popular with his records. He held press conferences in London, Paris, Frankfurt and Holland. David expressed his views on the subjects asked. He said, "I won't marry until I'm 30" and came back to Hollywood town where he resumed his "The Partridge Family" series and found a brand new Rolls Royce waiting for him. That's style! That rumor that has David wed is not so luvv. "I'm staying single and enjoying it," he laughs.

It's still warm and friendly for Shirley Jones and Jack Cassidy!

Had a note from Richard Chamberlain from London town where he's the big dramatic star, believe me. The critics praise Richard (who was America's "Dr. Kildare") in his British Shakespearan productions. He plays "Lord Byron" next. Of course there's his "King Edward VII" with Faye Dunaway, all about the Duke of Windsor and Wallis Simpson, which the British to date won't buy! It's a nice film entitled, "The Woman I Love" and we'll be seeing it aired on TV here by ABC in December. To my surprise at a theater party here at the Music Center was Richard who'd flown home.

ONE MINUTE INTERVIEW: Rick Nelson was the idol and rival of Elvis Presley in the fifties and sixties, when he had ten gold records with "For You" in 1963. Rick sold thirty-five million records and today he has another big hit in "Garden Party." With long hair, funky clothes and his new Stone Canyon Band, Rick's fifties fans wouldn't recognize him.

"That's good because I'm starting a whole new scene. A lot of people remember me with guys like Fabian and Frankie Avalon. I used to fake my guitar in the beginning. Everyone screamed so in those days I was too scared to play and no one could hear me anyway. But I learned to play and write and that's what my 'Garden Party' is all about. What excites me in my new career is my new songs as well as my oldies like 'Mary Lou.'" Even the
